Introduction

During the months of May and June of 2020, the Virgin Mary, with Her Face of the Rose of Peace, transmitted a series of fifty poems, called Poems to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, through the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, a monk of the Grace Mercy Order.

It is important to highlight that in the initial period of approach of the Divine Messengers to the visionary monastics of the Grace Mercy Order, Our Lady requested Mother María Shimani, as an instructor, to accompany the contact process of Friar Elías, and also to be in charge of the organization of all instruction received by him. This is why the two visionaries are listed as authors of this book.

These Poems guide us to a profound union with the Virgin Mary, who leads us by the hand to the encounter with Her beloved Son Jesus.

Each Poem brings an important message and a unique reflection: some lead us to a state of devotion and contemplation of the Immaculate Heart of Mary; others awaken us to charity and service to the neighbor. Some reveal Divine Mysteries to us, while others impel us to follow the Footprints of Christ and renew our commitment with Him through the intercession of His Holy Mother.

We invite the readers to enter with their hearts into the celestial impulses left by the Most Holy Virgin Mary within these simple and profound verses.

First Poem

Friday, May 1, 2020

Consoling Heart of Mary, Mirror of Love and divine trust, we surrender into Your arms in humility so that, just like Jesus, we may be filled by Your most sweet Love.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, untiring help of those who cry out to You, immediate aid of those who call upon You, unchangeable and eternal assistance, we ask You, now and forever, that we may be part of the promises of Christ so that the triumph of Love may be a reality within humanity.

Beloved Mother,
as Your servants, we consecrate ourselves, as Your children, we commit ourselves to the prayer of the heart so that many more hearts may achieve hope and redemption.

Amen.

Second Poem

Saturday, May 2, 2020

From the chains that imprison us, liberate us, Immaculate Heart of Mary.

From the harassments that torment us, liberate us, Immaculate Heart of Mary.

From the darkness that stalks us, liberate us, Immaculate Heart of Mary.

From the perdition that tempts us, liberate us, Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Because You, Most Holy Mother, are the Guardian of faith, You are the powerful Shield that protects us from all adversity, You are the merciful Light of God.

We ask of You, dear Mother, that Your Mantle of Light may envelop us, that our steps may be guided by You towards our Redeemer, that everything we do be part of the Will of God.

We long to fulfill the aspirations of Christ, we hope to be His apostles of Truth so that the Love of Your Son may be a victory within us, and Your maternal blessing may make us reborn every day and in the times to come.

Amen.

Third Poem

Sunday, May 3, 2020

Most Holy Mother,
may we be able to imitate Christ in His gestures of Charity and Love.

May we be capable, with Your celestial help, of representing Christ on Earth so that He may trust in us, and, thus, through Your impulse of Love, we may be faithful to the Divine Plan that has been entrusted to us.

Therefore, dear Mother, Mirror of Divine Justice, banish from our consciousness everything that separates us from God.

Free us from this long captivity of the consciousness so that, with gratitude, reverence and love, we may recognize the existence of God in all life.

Most Pure and Most Holy Heart of Mary, we ask You to pour out upon us Your Rays of Purity and Grace so that, being transformed by Your immaculate Love, we may someday reach redemption.

Amen.

Fourth Poem

Monday, May 4, 2020

Most Beautiful Rose of God, may we recognize Your purity in all that was created, and may our hearts and lives be part of Your original Purity.

Venerable Flower of the Father, help us to find the beauty and the Love that God, through His Son, deposited within us.

May we dare to take the steps towards the consecration of our souls, just as You, dear Holy Mother, consecrated Your life and Your entire being with the yes to the Archangel Gabriel.

Teach us to understand, beyond everything, the reason and the purpose for us to be here on Earth.

Awaken our consciousnesses to the true existence and, offering the temple of our imperfect hearts, tell our Father, God and Lord, to live within us
so that, someday,
we may learn to love Him as He loves us.

We thank You, Holy and humble Virgin.

Do not cease to refract upon us Your Mirror of Love and Compassion.

Amen.

Fifth Poem

Tuesday, May 5, 2020

Lady of the Poor,
Consoler of the afflicted, Mother of the exiled, Protector of the unborn, intercede for our humanity.

May we fulfill the aspirations of Christ.

May we be capable of responding to the Call of God at each moment.

Lady of the Poor,
may our hearts be humble.

May our lives be blessed by the Love of the Eternal Father.

May we never fail to fulfill our part in the Plan of humanity's Redemption.

Dear Mother,
make us free from ourselves so that we may serve better.

Make us unconditional like Your Son so that we may always say yes at each new summoning.

Teach us to take care of the poorest.

Teach us to serve others with love and mercy because in this way we will be apostles of Christ, willing to sacrifice ourselves for humanity so that the Love of the Sacred Hearts may triumph.

Amen.

Sixth Poem

Wednesday, May 6, 2020

Venerable Empress of the Universe, immaculate and pure since the origin, Source of inexhaustible maternal Love, pour out all Your Graces upon us.

Distance us, at this hour, from any danger so that, protected by Your Mantle of Light, we may know how to respond to the divine requests of Christ.

Venerable Empress of the Universe, may our nations and peoples be guided along the path of good, charity and justice.

May the culture of social and human discard be eradicated.

May we all remember that we are brothers and sisters in Christ so that this humanity may be restored, healed and forgiven of all errors committed.

Most Holy Mother, lead us to Jesus, surrender our lives, peoples and nations to His Heart so that the only government and authority may come from Christ, so that we may prepare, at this time, His Return to humanity.

Amen.

Seventh Poem

Thursday, May 7, 2020

Mother,
make my imperfect being a result of redemption.

Make all my miseries an act of rendition and forgiveness.

Mother, may Your Heart fill me through Your Rays of Love so that I may live
the Sacred Will of Your Son.

Liberate me from the chains that I am still dragging.

With Your Sword of Light, Divine Lady, cut the spiritual ties with evil so that the planet may also be liberated from all that humanity causes it.

I ask, dear Mother, that You may accompany me in each step, that You may watch and guard the treasures that my soul has received through the Love of Your Son, because my only aspiration, Queen of Heaven, is to fulfill and live all that which Christ expects.

For this, raise me up, Mother, from all my falls;
help me, Mother,
in the moments of great tribulation; protect me from all harassment.

May my spirit, mind and body be a temple where God can remain.

Through Your blessing, Mother, may I fulfill the promises of Christ.

Amen.

Eighth Poem

Saturday, May 9, 2020

Most Loving Queen of Heaven and Earth, at Your humble feet, we place our lives and hearts, as a sincere offering of all our love for You.

Most Beloved Mother of the Universe, great Mirror of God's Mercy, help us to be deserving of Heaven's Graces.

Establish within us
the Divine Purpose of Creation so that our consciousnesses may represent at least a small part of the Infinite and of the great Plan of humanity's Rescue.

We are Your servants, Most Holy Virgin.
We are those who, in prayer, offer themselves to be in vigil beside You so that the promises of Christ may be fulfilled in as many hearts as possible.

Mother, quench the thirst of those who are thirsty for the Light and Love of Christ.

Mother, alleviate the hearts of those who despair.
Bring to each one of us the universe of God's Love so that we may feel filled by the strength and power of Divine Mercy.

Amen.

Ninth Poem

Sunday, May 10, 2020

Mother, Doorway of Wisdom, help us accept and understand these times.

Impel us into the emptiness of self and into the complete giving of our beings.

May there be no conditions or forms for our service.

That everyday we may do things for love and nothing else.

May we manage to imitate Your Son in all the attributes of His divine and unfathomable spirituality.

Lady of the Angels, protect all those who follow the call of Your Heart.

Envelope us with Your Mantle of Light and Healing so that our difficulties and traumas may be dissolved, because we only aspire to be in Your arms of maternal Love.

Console us, Virgin of Peace, when we feel that we no longer have the strength to continue on.

Make us see, in each learning experience, an opportunity of overcoming and surrendering.

Dear Mother, may we not fear illness, loneliness or the end of times.

Sustain us,
so that, under Your unconditional Spirit, we may learn to surrender without interests, just as Your Son did out of Love for humanity.

Amen.

Tenth Poem

Lady of Mercy, Mother of Divine Creation, teach us to live fortitude.

May we pass through this world with the conviction that we are fulfilling the requests of Christ.

Mother of humanity,
may our lower condition be transformed, may nothing else limit us from being in Christ, because our aspiration is to be His apostles of the end times.

Grant us the Grace, dear Mother, of being able to unconditionally respond to Our Lord.
Do not allow our human hearts to be tepid or fragile.

May the fire of the Holy Spirit impel us to achieve our mission, because we aspire to be nothing so that Your Son may find a place within us.

Dear Celestial Mother, You know that our flesh is weak, but You can strengthen our souls in love so that, united to Your Heart of Love, we may respond to the merciful Call of Christ.

May there no longer be definitions but rather the fulfillment of the great Redeeming Project within humanity.

Mother, help us to be self-summoned.

May the strength of giving to the Plan of God arise within us.

Amen.

Eleventh Poem

Tuesday, May 12, 2020

Eternal Lady of Light, invincible and immaculate Power, Sustenance for those who need You, Divine Love for those who seek it, make us discover God within so that any adversity or challenge may be overcome through the spiritual assistance that You give us, Divine Mother.

On this day, we ask You that You may always guide us towards Your beloved Son.

That in the unconditional service of our lives, we may recognize the Face of Christ.

That, in each opportunity to give of ourselves, we may understand the importance of the Plan of Love for humanity.

Thus, Most Holy Mother, we will be free of ourselves so that, each new day, our surrender and offering may be deeper and deeper.

Dear Mother,
protect each one of our steps.

Help us to find humility and silence in the rhythm of life, because we aspire to imitate You in contemplation and silent prayer.

Therefore, Mother, we surrender before You so that Your most pure Heart may bless us forever.

Amen.

Twelfth Poem

Thursday, May 14, 2020

Guardian and Protector of faith, free us from the darkness of these times, distance us from the path of perdition.

May the Sacred Flame of Your Immaculate Heart be the guide of our lives.

Celestial Mother,
may our steps be accompanied until we are able to meet Christ.

May the power of Your luminous and loving Heart lead us to the House of the Celestial Father, because we recognize ourselves as children of God, expressions of His Redeeming Project, fundamental parts of His Work of Mercy.

May we never tire of seeking union with the Kingdom of the Heavens.

May gratitude and reverence help us perceive the divine reality that lies before our eyes, day by day.

With Your divine help, Mother of God, may we comply with that which the Holy Will of God establishes.

Thus, we will learn,
just like You, dear Mother, to remain in the emptiness of ourselves, without expecting anything in return.

Awaken Your unconditional Love within us so that we may also be unconditional, and, thus, our lives will belong to God.

Amen.

Thirteenth Poem

Friday, May 15, 2020

Most Holy Mother of Truth, take from our eyes the veils that blind us so that, freed by You from illusion, ignorance and indifference, we may recognize the majestic Work of Christ on Earth.

Lady of Divine Justice, lead us to commit ourselves every day to the Sacred Commandments.

No one, more than You, was the obedient example of God on the surface of the Earth.

Therefore, we supplicate to You, sweet Lady, make us love each Divine Law so that our lives may be mirrors of transparency, fidelity and commitment.

May our emotions not confuse us.

Make us see reality in each moment of life so that we may learn and, thus, the divine gift of Your maternal Wisdom may descend upon us, because, dear Mother, we need to mature and respond as apostles of Christ.

Impel us to seek awareness in everything.

May our responses to the Divine Plan not be personal or impulsive, but, rather, may they be responses in accordance with wisdom and discernment.

May we, now and forever, be guided by the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Fourteenth Poem

Saturday, May 16, 2020

Queen of the Universe, Celestial Dome of God, Sublime Aroma of Peace, give us empty and humble hearts, hearts capable of no longer wanting anything for themselves, poor hearts, united to the humble Heart of God.

O Holy Mother!
give us peacemaking, faithful, meek hearts,
available for Your Son,
hearts uninterested in the life of the world.

Most Pure Virgin,
give us pure and unchanging hearts,
hearts mature in the Love of Your Son,
hearts defeated by the Truth of Christ.

Faithful Servant,
give us selfless hearts,
capable of not having time for themselves but rather an eternal giving of self for others.

Mother of Heaven,
give us sensitive hearts, open hearts, hearts of immense gratitude and recognition for all that Your Son gives us.

That, with transformed hearts, we may help to banish indifference in the world so that fraternity and unity may reign among souls.

Thus, Your Son shall return, with His Heart of Light, to rebuild this world and all of humanity.

That, through You, Divine Lady, our hearts may represent at least a part of the redeeming Work of Christ on Earth.

Amen.

Fifteenth Poem

Sunday, May 17, 2020

Venerable Holy Virgin, may all the gathered souls be a precious Rosary of Light so that, being in Your humble hands, we may be a constant offering of prayer and service for humanity.

Dear Heavenly Mother,
as souls, may we be beads of the Rosary of Light so that, as Your redeemed children, we may glorify the Celestial Father for His Infinite Work of Mercy.

May our hearts
love the power of the Holy Cross, which will protect us and grant us the profound Peace of the Lord.

We aspire, Most Holy Mother, that our entire beings may be part of Your Rosary of Light so that You may count on us as Your praying armies, untiring servers of the Divine Word of prayer, so that our families, peoples and nations may also be part of Your spiritual Work of the Rosaries of Light.

Dear Heavenly Mother,
may Your maternal blessing be in us so that we may recognize Christ in the fellow being.

Thus, we will all be able to be part of the sacred family of prayer, and Your gifts of Love and Peace will be poured out upon us, consecrating us again as Your children, souls of the Rosaries of Light.

Amen.

Sixteenth Poem

Beloved Mother of the World, liberate us from the errors that we may have committed.

Give us strength and spiritual determination to be able to redeem and transcend our human aspects.

Do not allow, Holy Virgin, that these errors be nourished by more errors and faults.

Cut, with Your powerful Sword, the ties with adversity.

Protect our souls, Divine Lady, envelop us with Your invisible Mantle of Light so that, united to You, we may represent the apostles of Christ on Earth.

Universal Mother,
deposit Your thirteen attributes within our consciousnesses so that we may apply them in our daily lives as an example of transformation and conversion.

Holy Mother, do not allow illusion and deceit to blind our eyes.

Allow us and help us to always see the Truth so that our steps may reach Christ.
There, able to enter into Spiritual Communion, we will thank You and honor You as our eternal and loving Mother of Peace.

Break the chains of the past within us so that our souls may walk in freedom towards the House of the Celestial Father.

Take us, Divine Mother, before the eternal altar of the consecration of life.

Amen.

Seventeenth Poem

Tuesday, May 19, 2020

Lady of Love and Light, Venerable Queen of the Universe, help us to trust,
just like You trusted entirely in our Father God.

In obedience, may we recognize the Divine Will,
and, thus, may we follow It until we fulfill each Design of the Creator.

In the absolute void of our personality,
dear Mother,
may we receive, with humility and confidence, the Words of Your Son, so that we may carry out the awaited Work of Mercy and Redemption.

With determination, may we dare to commit ourselves more to the Divine Plan of the Redeemer.

With Your maternal help, may we assume the apostleship, and guide our steps along the indelible Footprints of Christ.

May we not miss the opportunity of serving consciously.

May our hearts not be tepid before the summoning.

May our interests in collaborating not be cold but, rather, moved by the fire of Your maternal Love, may we be led to concretize the aspirations of Christ.

May we be whole and willing in each new work so that, as soldiers of the Light, we may be open and unconditional before any call.

Amen.

Eighteenth Poem

Wednesday, May 20, 2020

Sacred Arc of the Holy Covenant, Sweet Melody of God, Immaculate Temple,
favorite Slave of God,
may we be able to reach the celestial spheres so that, united to You, dear Mother, we may fulfill, step by step, everything that Your Son expects.

Banish from us
all tepidness and human fragility.

With the power of Your fire of Divine Love, may we carry out this apostolic mission of the end of times.

Liberate our minds of all fears.

May our lives be affirmed in You, Universal Mother,
because we hope to concretize the aspirations of Christ, now and forever.

Assist us when we have no strength.
Protects us when we are defenseless.
May we be able to feel the merciful Love of Your Heart at each stage of our lives.

And, before You, may our faith expand so that we may learn to step out of mediocrity and negligence, knowing that Christ awaits our prompt surrender.

Make us small,
just as You, Most Holy Virgin, made Yourself small and humble before the paternal Gaze of God.

Amen.

Nineteenth Poem

Morning Star,
Aurora of rebirth,
Patroness of all nations, that, as a people, we may prepare the Arrival of Christ.

May our feet walk towards the sacred Temple of the King's Heart so that, blessed by His Spirit, we may renew our strength in service and charity for humanity and for the Kingdoms of Nature.

Dear Celestial Mother,
help us to alleviate the sorrows of humanity.

May Your Love teach us to always be present, in all needs.

May we learn to take care of and protect our nations through fervent prayer, because we know that You are present in it to help us.

Mary,
help of all Christians, envelop us with Your Mantle of Light so that we may dare to follow the path of the apostles of Christ.

May our fidelity be the united flame* with those who do not live in God.

In the void of our beings, may Your beloved Son find a place where He can govern and work, out of love for humanity and for the whole planet.

May our faith help our nations fulfill the Purpose of God.

Amen.

* United flame is the energy of love and compassion that, from our hearts, we can radiate to others.

Twentieth Poem

Saturday, May 23, 2020

Lady of Peace,
give us the unchangeable joy of serving God, just as You experienced it for each one of us.

May we always be able to find the inner impulse to serve God.

May our hands, Mother, be Your hands.

May our feet, Lady,
be Your feet.

May our hearts
be Your Heart entirely, at the service of the Lower Kingdoms and humanity.

Most dear Mother, may we not step back when we are called to serve in the Work of Your beloved Son.

Through Your spiritual and maternal help, may we have the awareness and clarity of what it means to serve Christ in His Work of Mercy and Love.

Most Pure Virgin, send us the Holy Spirit so that, blessed by Its seven Gifts, we may be available and prepared to serve untiringly, just as You serve untiringly.

Awaken our missionary hearts.

May all souls be able to know the power of God's Word so that, instructed by Your Son's impulses of Light, more hearts may awaken and dare to join and serve in the redeeming Work of Your Son.

We thank You, Mother, for always being there, constantly guiding us towards Your Son, so that we may learn to serve for peace.

Amen.

Twenty-first Poem

Immaculate Conception, shelter of those who have nothing, breath of those who have no strength, love of those who have lost it, guide our paths
so that our spiritual missions may be fulfilled, so that we may be very close to Christ and participate in the advent of His awaited Return.

Celestial Mother,
banish from within us any trace of sin and perversion.

May we be cleansed
by the water of Your most pure Fount, because we need to be purified by Your Rays of Love before entering the immaterial Temple of Creation.

Help us and teach us to rebuild our lives.

We wish, most sweet Lady, to face the truth of our beings, so that more veils may fall from our consciousnesses.

Make us deserving of Christ's promises.

With enthusiasm and adherence, may we respond to each summoning.

We aspire to attain maturity of consciousness, because we need to grow in order to improve and collaborate in the Plan of God.

Divine Lady, we ask You to impel us to be in the emptiness of self so that we may be filled with an impersonal, Christic and higher Love.

Thus, we will be apostles of Truth, without fear of surrendering our beings a little more each day.

Amen.

Twenty-second Poem

Tuesday, May 26, 2020

Powerful and invincible Lady,
with Your feet,
step on that which causes pain and darkness.

Through the powerful Rays that Your Most Pure Heart emanates, liberate us from damnation.

Break the chains of illusion from our consciousnesses.

With Your Sword of Light, cut the ties with evil, so that, by the power of the Blood of Christ, which was poured out upon the surface of the Earth, souls may manage to again rise and thus they may find the Footprints of Christ.

Powerful Mother of the World, Celestial Mirror of Light and Wisdom, lead us towards the great portal of our freedom so that we may be redeemed, according to that which the Sacred Word indicates.

We want and we aspire to be apostles of Christ, a fundamental part of His Mystical Body; thus, we will know how and manage to represent the Work of Redemption and Divine Mercy in this world; we will know how to sustain, with responsibility and adherence, the great Project of Christ upon the planet.

Mother of Light, make us aware of each step that we take towards Your beloved Son.

Mother,
make us deserving of God 's Love for the world.

Amen.

Twenty-third Poem

Wednesday, May 27, 2020

Temple of Divine Wisdom, Mother of Grace and Mercy, Lady of Silence,
teach us to find the answers in profound spiritual silence, because, there, we will manage to understand the mysteries of Creation with the heart.

Lady of Silence,
may Your profound silence before the Cross impel us to accept with gratitude each test that we go through.

May Your maternal silence constantly reveal to us the immense gratitude that You experience in each Call of God.

Lady of Silence,
help us find the right words in each situation of life.

May we be guided by the Holy Spirit through Your loving and blessed intercession.

Teach us, Mother of Silence, to not wound others with our words and comments.

May we give value and reverence to the Divine Word.

May we be able to discover within us the meaning of subtle vibrations so that we no longer waste time on unnecessary things but rather that our words may always be a warm and fervent prayer of silence.

Thus, with Your loving help, Lady of Silence, we will perceive life just as You know the life of all humanity.

Amen.

Twenty-fourth Poem

Thursday, May 28, 2020

Beloved Lady of Lourdes, let us internally come to know the unfathomable Mysteries of Light.

May we be able to renew the Sacrament of Baptism within us so that we may always be blessed, just as Your beloved Son Jesus was blessed.

May we be able to convert our lives, just as Christ converted the water into wine during the Wedding at Cana.

At this time, may we be able to receive the Good News with gratitude, just as Christ announced and proclaimed the Kingdom of the Heavens within the human heart.

May we be transfigured and may our true beings be revealed so that we may come out of illusion and appearances, just as Jesus was transfigured and showed the Power of His whole Being.

May we be deserving of the Grace to always spiritually commune with the merits of Christ, just as Our Lord communed with His companions, at that time, and testified to the immensity of God's Work of Mercy.

In this way, most sweet and loving Mother, with Your help, we will be able to live the Mysteries of Light and finally be apostles of Christ, praying servants of Your Immaculate Heart.

Amen.

Twenty-fifth Poem

Mother and Lady of Absolute Truth, lead us, in this life,
along the path of transparency and giving.

May our efforts be similar to the inner efforts made by Christ during His sorrowful Passion.

Make us capable of listening to Truth, because we aspire to become more conscious and more attentive each day in order to learn to take care of and protect the Plan of the Creator from ourselves.

Empty us of mind and spirit, Mother, so that Your sacred impulses may be reflected in our lives.

Teach us, dear Lady, to love fidelity.

May our doubts and tests not place us upon an uncertain path.

May we be able to lovingly fulfill everything that the Universe asks of us.

Thus, we will gradually learn to come out of ourselves a little more so that, with maturity and awareness, we may carry out the aspirations of Christ.

May the spirit of loyalty be built within our consciousnesses.

May we forever abandon mediocrity and pride so that Your Son may find in us a place to return.

Amen.

Twenty-sixth Poem

Saturday, May 30, 2020

Lady of the Stars, Mother of the Higher Universe, lead us to understand, through the heart, the mysteries of our existence so that, in the awakening of our consciousnesses, we may truly collaborate in the redemption of our origins.

May we constantly seek holy humility so that our personalities may humble themselves.

May we aspire to live resignation so that we may transcend our pride.

Empress of the Celestial Universe,
make us small
so that we may be deserving of Your beloved Son's revelations.

May we forever lose interest in manipulation and human control.

May our consciousnesses be placed at the Feet of the Celestial Father so that we may lovingly learn to ask for forgiveness for all errors committed.

With empty and resigned hearts, Lady of Light, we will learn to allow Christ to enter within us so that His Spirit may renew all things.

Let us come to know, Queen of the Universe, the gifts that You constantly lived in order to be in contact with God.

Banish from our minds all beliefs in power and sovereignty, because we will always be like small grains in the universe.

Amen.

Twenty-seventh Poem

Sunday, May 31, 2020

Final Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, on the Occasion of the Marian Month

Venerable Queen of the Angels, protective and invincible Shield of lost souls, immediate Help of all Christians, Celestial Intercessor and Mediatrix, Immaculate Temple of the Wisdom of God, Mirror of Divine Justice,
Patroness of all nations and all peoples, Lady of the Most Holy Rosary,
we thank You for being present in our lives, and we offer You our whole beings so that the Divine Will may be fulfilled in us.

United to Your eternal Rosary of Light, we consecrate ourselves as Your praying children and legionaries of Your loving consoling Heart.

Help us to stand up from our falls so that, walking firmly towards the encounter with Christ, we may be the living victories of redemption and peace in this world.

We crown You, Most Holy Virgin, we thank You, Mother of Love, we revere You, Rose of Peace.

May Your Mantle of Light envelop us along this journey of life so that we may serve God with all our hearts.

Accept our consecration.

Amen.

Twenty-eighth Poem

Monday, June 1, 2020

Lady of Humility, in surrender and selflessness, teach us to recognize the inner need of the fellow being.

May our gaze not judge but rather may our hands lovingly collaborate in all that may be necessary.

Mother,
may we no longer complain, may we finally live gratitude and love for sacrifice, because we know and recognize that this will make us free forever.

Help us, Virgin of the Stars, to find the spirit of fortitude and giving at this crucial planetary moment so that we may serve our brothers and sisters, and, thus, we may find in them the suffering Face of Christ.

Dear Universal Mother,
may we live an unconditional surrender, just as You live it for each one of us.

Mother,
take into account our errors and difficulties in truly giving of ourselves, because we know that, through Your most pure Grace, we will manage to take steps out of love for the Higher Design.

We ask that, at this moment, You empty our minds and hearts so that the warm words of Your revealing message may resonate within us.

Within the flame of gratitude, may we always see the untiring giving of Your Heart reflected.

Amen.

Twenty-ninth Poem

Tuesday, June 2, 2020

Protector of all souls, Supreme Hope of all the poor, Star and Luminary of the end times, we beg You, at this moment, that You help us find the merciful Light of Christ so that we may be touched by His powerful Rays and thus be liberated from all chains that imprison us.

Elevate our beings, Divine Lady of Peace, so that, little by little,
we may detach ourselves from this material condition, because we ardently aspire that, with Your powerful intercession, we may be taken to the Spiritual Universe, now and forever.

We want to be before the Thrones of the Eternal Father, to be able to praise Him and glorify Him, just as the angels eternally exalt Him.

Give us enough humility to recognize that, in the total void of our beings, and, with effort, we will reach the Divine Universe, even while present on Earth.

Mother, You are the Doorway of Peace.

Let the universes open before Your Presence so that we may see the immensity of God's Universe and of all Creation.

We want to commune with this moment.

We hope, one day,
to be in the Arms of the Celestial Father.

Amen.

Thirtieth Poem

Wednesday, June 3, 2020

Mother of Hope,
Dew of Light in the morning, unchangeable Sustenance for those who call upon You, remove from our eyes the blindfolds of illusion so that the Spiritual Universe may reign in our lives.

May we dare to imitate the saints of the past.

In the example of the apostles of Christ, may we see the path of transformation fulfilled.

Most Holy Mother,
so that everything may be possible, give us a humble and true heart, capable of embracing the planet.

Teach us to walk, persevering in faith, so that the barriers of our consciousnesses may be dissolved.

Mother,
free us from the slavery of the human condition so that we may be available and open to respond to Your call.

Lead us towards Your Son at all times.
We aspire to live in perpetual communion with His Merciful Heart.

Grant us this Grace, Most Holy Mother, so that, with reverence and love, we may enter the Temple of inner purity, a place where our Father God will lead us to understand the reason for being here, in this world.

Amen.

Thirty-first Poem

Thursday, June 4, 2020

Humble Servant of God, Immaculate Mother of suffering's relief, place us in Your arms, at this moment, so that we may feel lovingly protected by You.

Relieve our hearts of any desolation.

You are the powerful Mother who sustains us and loves us eternally.

In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, may we find the path of return to God's Heart.

guide us with the Light of Your Crown.

With Your feet,
step upon all that causes pain and despair;
relieve suffering.

May our faith be renewed at each moment.

May our souls be on the path towards the Celestial Kingdom so that, while we serve our fellow beings here on Earth,
we may learn to love
the Will of God as You do.

Free us from the chains and illusions that imprison us.

Make us aware of our service of love and selflessness for humanity.

Correct our paths so that we may only be on the sacred path of Your Son where we will live the Spiritual Communion with Him as a part of His Celestial Kingdom.

Amen.

Thirty-second Poem

Friday, June 5, 2020

Lady of Calvary,
alleviate the weight of our cross, help us to live Your Son's Mystery of Love.

Lady of Calvary,
may we contemplate and live the Agony of Jesus as a moment to strengthen our faith and trust in the Eternal Father.

May we contemplate the Flagellation of Jesus as the deepest testimony of His redeeming Love for each one of us.

May we contemplate the Crowning of Jesus as the triumph of Divine Wisdom over our ignorance, as the moment in which our consciousnesses expand through the knowledge of Love received.

May we contemplate the Path of Calvary as the opportunity for us to live our cross and make of our lives a victorious cross, wining through love and through the transformation of the human heart.

May we contemplate the Crucifixion of Christ as the coming time of liberation from our spiritual slavery, a liberation given by Jesus in the last moments upon the wood of the Cross, a liberation granted through the work of Divine Mercy.

Lady of Calvary,
may we learn to imitate Your Son on the path of unconditional service.

Amen.

Thirty-third Poem

Saturday, June 6, 2020

Morning Star,
that brings the Light of Love and Truth, guide us along the path of redemption.

May our eyes be fixed upon Christ so that we may be reborn and inwardly healed of all that may be necessary.

Lady and Mother of Consolation, embrace us and place us under Your protective Mantle.

May Your maternity awaken within us the unity with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Celestial Mother,
we aspire to be the redeemed stars of Your Crown of Light.

Help us to live the attributes of Your Heart.

Teach us to practice the Instructions of Your Son in daily life because, in this way, we will be the apostles of the Lord, servers and collaborators of His redeeming Work.

Mother,
give us strength and courage during the moments when we most need them, so that we may live perseverance and faith at each instant.

Make us true Christians, disciples of Your Son's Love because we hope to serve Him and find Him in each step of life, so that in Christ we may fulfill the Will of God.

Amen.

Thirty-fourth Poem

Sunday, June 7, 2020

Mary,
Light of God that descends to Earth, State of Grace and perpetual Mercy, I ask You, on this day, that my soul and my heart may live inner consecration so that Your Son may find a space within my soul where He can govern and work.

Therefore, Most Holy Virgin,
I offer my life as a path for consecration.

Divested of my ideas and concepts, take me to the void of everything so that,
in this practice of constant renunciation, I may be deserving of all the Mercy possible, in order to redeem and sanctify my life.

Dear Celestial Mother,
may daily prayer impel me to transformation, to an absolute living of service to the neighbor and the Kingdoms of Nature.

May my human heart become sensitive, to be able to feel the need of those who cry out for help.

I hope that, someday,
I may be responding to Christ as a beginner disciple who learns to recognize service and love everywhere.

Lady of mine, make of my soul a missionary soul.

Amen.

Thirty-fifth Poem

Most Holy Mary,
loving Power of God, perfect Reflection of Divine Humility, faithful Servant of the Creator, help us to reflect all the beauty that we have.

May the talents that Your Son taught us be a reality within us so that we may represent His Work on Earth.

Make us simple and true.

May we learn to love and serve as You, Our Lady, serve and love each one of Your children.

Make us discover God's power of Love.

May we understand, beyond appearances, all that Divine Love means and represents within our lives.

May we not fear this Higher Love because, beyond all things, we aspire to be united to the Purpose of Your Son's Love, a Love that will renew us and make us deserving of the Father's Grace and Mercy.

May we be consistent with the Divine Love that we receive.

May You, Most Holy Virgin, always show us how to love, more and more, until we surrender completely to God.

Amen.

Thirty-sixth Poem

Lady of Adoration,
may we enter the Divine Temple of the Lord in prayer and consciousness so that we may be purified of everything and liberated from any oppression within our consciousnesses.

Lady of Adoration,
help us so that our sins may be dissolved by the power of Your maternal Love.
May we be cleansed and purified in the Temple so that our souls may be reborn, freed from the prisons of life and surrendered in trust to the Will of God.

Lady of Adoration,
may our purification teach us about the redemption of our forms and ways of life.

In this offering of purification that we experience in this time, may we reach the first pathway of sanctity.

Mother and Lady of Adoration, with Your Grace, illuminate our paths.

After our purification, may we find the Light of the Face of the Glorified Christ.

May our souls be exalted for being able to feel and participate in the Spiritual Communion and consecration that Jesus offers us.

During this purification, may we see the good side of this whole experience because, through this learning, we hope to be able to grow in Love and Truth.

Amen.

Thirty-seventh Poem

Wednesday, June 10, 2020

Most Holy Lady of the Rosary, unconditional Sustenance of humanity, celestial and profound Love, make us understand the mystery of Your service and surrender.

Impel us to serve and surrender so that we may be deserving of Heaven's Graces.

Along the path of unconditional surrender, may we recognize, in our brothers and sisters, the living Face of Christ, because we need to grow in love and in the transparency of our lives.

Lady of eternal prayer, allow us to know the incalculable value of inner prayer.

May our flame of faith be lit and may our supplications rise to the Heart of the Father.

Do not let us fall into illusion or indifference.

May we have our hearts open to recognize the urgent need of service and prayer at this time.

Lady of the Most Holy Rosary, may we see and feel, just as You feel and see Your children of the world.

Bring us the awareness of what it means to fulfill the Will of God.

May our perception of reality expand so that we not remain in what is small but rather in what is great, in the marvel of responding to God.

Amen.

Thirty-eighth Poem

Thursday, June 11, 2020

Most Holy Mother of Contemplation, Sacred Guardian of the Relics of Christ, Messenger of Your Son's Word of Love,
    on this day, we ask You to help us integrally live all the teachings of Christ so that, in this definitive time, we may be an example of Redemption and Grace.

Most Holy Mother of Contemplation, help us so that each Word of Christ may resonate like an impulse of Light within us.

Through the Gospel, may we be self-summoned to serve God without conditions, aiming to alleviate the wounded heart of Christ for everything that He observes in the world.

Most Holy Mother of Contemplation, teach us to commit ourselves to the Path of Christ because, in adherence, we will help to prepare His Return through works of love.

May we never lose the joy of serving and recognizing that we are children of God.

When we manage to be divested of self, we ask You, Mother, to take us by the hand towards the path of truth, where we will continue redeeming our lives, which will be at the service of Our Lord's Plan of Love.

Amen.

Thirty-ninth Poem

Mother,
on this day, we would like to stay in Your arms,
so that we may be filled with Your Love and Your Mercy.

We would like the most innocent children who are in danger
to be in Your arms today so that they may be sheltered by Your Divine Pity.

Mother,
we would like the unborn to be in a safe place, under Your protection, so that they may have the Grace of again finding the path of Light that will lead them to the Eternal Father.

Mother,
we would like the women and men of the world who sell their bodies for the pleasure of others to be in Your arms,
so that they may be safe and see,
at some moment, the doorway out to abandon darkness.

Mother,
we would like the poorest among the poor and the elderly, abandoned by their families,
to be in Your arms today,
so that they may feel deserving of receiving Your warm and affectionate Love that will heal them internally.

Mother,
we would like all refugees and those exiled from their countries
to be in Your arms, so that they may feel the joy of rebuilding their lives and finding hope in this time of definition.

Mother,
we would like the planet
to be in Your arms today so that the consciousness of the Earth may be relieved and no longer feel that it is alone.

Mother,
today, more than ever,
we would like to learn to truly love as You love us, unconditionally.

Amen.

Fortieth Poem

Sunday, June 14, 2020

Lady of Graces, infinite Expression of the Humility and Generosity of God, may a profound and true gratitude rise from us today for all that You have given us, with so much Love, Devotion and Grace.

May only gratitude, reverence and devotion emanate from our hearts as a way of expressing all our love for the Heavenly Mother.

We wish our voices to resonate throughout Heaven so that the angels of the Virgin Mary may hear our sincere proclamation.

Thanks to the Universe of God, we have always been blessed, purified and filled through the intercession of Our Lady.

May we have the happiness of being able to remember each moment shared with the Sacred Hearts.

In this cycle of definitions, may our souls be turned to surrender, love and sacrifice for this magnificent and humble Work of Love.

Today our souls reiterate their gratitude, because we have been bathed by the Light of the Immaculate Heart.

May the Divine Mother know of our gratitude and the heartfelt love we have for Her.

Amen.

Forty-first Poem

Monday, June 15, 2020

Queen of Heaven and Earth, illuminate our paths with the stars of Your Crown so that on the pathway of life we may encounter God.

Make us simple of heart and ardent in prayer, because we hope to be fulfilling a part of the Creator's Plan.

Queen of Heaven and Earth, grant us the Grace of being released from the chains of oppression and from the slavery that our souls might be living.

Queen of Heaven and Earth, help us to finally be disciples and servers of Christ.

May our lives and existence be in the Sacred Hands of Your Son so that He may mold them as new instruments at His service of Love and Peace.

Queen of Heaven and Earth,
we aspire to no longer want anything for ourselves but rather that our lives may be the example of the promises of Christ for the redemption of humanity.

Queen of Heaven and Earth,
we ask You to guide and accompany us until we are able to walk alone so that, with maturity, we may lovingly respond to the requests of God.

Amen.

Forty-second Poem

Lady of Charity,
may I find the opportunity to serve everywhere so that I may consciously alleviate the Heart of the Master.

Lady of Charity,
may I have the Grace of understanding, beyond forms,
what the opportunity of serving the planet means for my soul.

In each surrender and act of service, may my heart be completely renewed, to be able to feel the joy of living in God.

Lady of Charity,
grant me the Grace of being able to feel, just like You, the immeasurable love of surrendering my life to the Higher Will.

Make me capable of learning, at each instant, that which service teaches me and shows me.

May I have enough strength to be able to serve Your Son until the end.

Lady of Charity,
each day of my life,
may I reflect kindness, compassion and gratitude for serving at each new summoning.

May selfless service show me the opportunity of becoming free of myself, to be able to achieve ever deeper expressions of love.

Amen.

Forty-third Poem

Wednesday, June 17, 2020

Sovereign Lady of Peace, Mother and Most Pure Virgin, help us recover our essential purity so that we may again reflect innocence in our lives.

Liberate us from the ties of illusion, from unreal situations.

May our consciences be available and whole to be able to serve God.

Virgin of Purity, awaken within us the sacred essential purity so that we may be deserving of Divine Grace, Love and Peace.

Make the Light that God placed in our hearts emerge from within us so that, through service and prayer, we may be little stars that shine in the darkness of this time.

May more souls be able to awaken to essential purity so that they may also be closer to God, and thus feel the Love of the Divine Source.

Most Pure Virgin,
refract in us and through Your Light the virtues that You achieved during Your passage on Earth, so that we may learn to find the elevation of consciousness in effort, in surrender and in permanent prayer.

Amen.

Forty-fourth Poem

Thursday, June 18, 2020

Mother of Mercy,
help me overcome the fears of my consciousness and, through Your Grace, I may dissolve them in Love and Peace.

Mother of Mercy,
after so many tests and falls, may my soul be strengthened to continue forward, able to see the Footprints of Christ.

Mother of Mercy,
liberate me from sin, from constant faults; remove me from the chains of damnation and illusion so that I may fly as free as a bird until I can find the path of return to the Heart of God.

Mother of Mercy,
pour out upon my life the merits and the victories that Christ achieved during His Passion.

Through the Light of His precious Body, may I elevate my consciousness to be more united to God.

Through the power of His Blood, may my soul receive the impulses it needs to finish this school of redemption.

Mother of Mercy,
hear my prayers, every day.

Come into my life
so that I may achieve liberation from spiritual slavery, because, thus, I will be able to be a disciple of Christ, willing to surrender my life as a testimony of Love and as a work of Mercy.

Amen.

Forty-fifth Poem

Mother,
give me a simple heart so that I may recognize the immensity of God's Love.

Mother,
give me a meek heart
so that I may learn to find peace.

Mother,
give me a humble heart
so that I may see Christ reflected in the face of each brother and sister.

Mother,
give me a strengthened heart so that, before the temptations and tests, I may only think of Christ.

Mother,
give me an empty heart so that I may be divested of self and Christ may have a place to dwell within me.

Mother,
give me a charitable and serving heart so that I may realize the needs everywhere.

Mother,
give me a grateful heart so that it may not fall into the test of criticism or value judgment, but rather may I always be able to live gratitude, even in the small details of life.

Mother,
give me a heart filled with faith so that I may always trust in that which is unknown, and calmly open myself to be redeemed by Your Son.

Mother,
give me a faithful heart so that You and Christ may trust in my soul, that will strive to fulfill its mission on Earth.

Amen.

Forty-sixth Poem

Powerful Lady of Perpetual Help, help us in the hour of great difficulties.

Free us from any danger and send us Your angelic armies of Light so that they may open the paths towards God.

Powerful Lady of Perpetual Help, place us under Your Mantle so that, before adversity, we may become invisible, and thus we may resume the pathway of service and peace.

Powerful Lady of Perpetual Help, You Who know who we are, guide our lives so that we may achieve the Holy Will that will lead us to entirely live the expressions and Virtues of God, thus, we will be able to be apostles of Your Son, helping to carry out the Eternal Father's Plan of Love.

Powerful Lady of Perpetual Help, protect us in the face of any danger, shelter us in the face of any difficulty, because we hope to respond to Christ in every moment

Divine Lady, strengthen our faith so that we may fully trust in the Presence of God within us.

Amen.

Forty-seventh Poem

Sunday, June 21, 2020

Dear Lady of Light, Virgin protector of vocations, awaken in us the unchangeable joy of serving God, awaken in us the unbreakable faith that You lived for the Plan of the Creator.

Lady of Hope, awaken in us the permanent conviction of fulfilling the Will of God, awaken in us the inner renewal to untiringly serve Your beloved Son.

Lady of Light and unconditional Love, awaken in us ever deeper acts of Love and Mercy, so that we may also be deserving of Peace.

Lady of Light and Trust, teach us the same trust that You lived with humility so that we may feel, beyond everything, that God is, in each moment, participating in the lives of His children.

Lady of Light and Obedience, help us to divest and detach ourselves from everything we consider to be our own.
In surrender, may we open ourselves to learn and obey without complaining, by only lovingly following the steps that Your Son indicates.

Mother, banish personal will from our consciousnesses so that we may live in peace.

Amen.

Forty-eighth Poem

Monday, June 22, 2020

Mirror of God's Justice, intercede for the whole world, intercede for Your children of the Earth so that souls may awaken in time to the true state of consciousness, and, thus, the lives of the world may make the very necessary changes in this time.

Mediatrice of Divine Love, place in the hearts of Your children the Gifts and Virtues of God so that souls may become aware of the importance of turning towards God, and of reconciling their lives through Divine Mercy.

Guardian of Faith,
help us protect the purity that God deposits within our hearts.

Through acts of charity and love, may we renew our inner vows with the Eternal Father.

Help us, Most Holy Mother, so that any trace of illusion may disappear
from our consciousnesses.

May we be able to find the truth we need so that, in Your Son, we may achieve spiritual freedom.

May the angels of Heaven break with their swords the shackles of damnation, and may souls find the meaning and reason for being present on Earth.

May ignorance give place to wisdom, and, in wisdom, may we find the peace and faith in living the Divine Plan of Love.

Amen.

Forty-ninth Poem

Tuesday, June 23, 2020

Sorrowful Mother, teach us, every day,
to persevere in faith and love, just as You constantly persevered in God after the Ascension of Your Son.

Sorrowful Mother,
reveal to us the incalculable value of the Passion and of the Cross; may we not fear sacrifice, sorrow, anguish and the end of time.

Sorrowful Mother,
be the sustenance of us all,
impel us to serve and love, just as You served and loved the ignorant and indifferent humanity.

May our hearts open to feel and find the answer within each learning experience of life.

Sorrowful Mother,
give us the patience that we need to be able to go through these definitive moments.

Above all,
may we live the unity of spirit among us, brothers and sisters on the path, just as You, dear Mother, live divine unity with Your Son.

At each step, show us the meaning of our self-giving and surrender.

May we be lovers of the Cross and of Your Son's Heart so that, in the example of Christ, we may experience brotherhood and fraternity, giving of ourselves, without delay, to the fellow being.

Amen.

Fiftieth Poem

Queen of Peace, Consoling Mother,
Guardian of hearts,
intercede for this planet and for this humanity;
intercede for the Kingdoms of Nature.

Bring to each soul the strength and immensity of Your Love so that, in this definitive time, Your children may know which path to go through, and thus they may find the pathway towards the Sacred Heart of Your Son.

Queen of Peace,
may Your Peace echo
throughout the inner universe of each heart.
May all of humanity be able to feel in brotherhood among their fellow beings.

May hatred, adversity, injustice and the trafficking of people no longer exist.

May hearts awaken and again find the path towards God, our Powerful Father.

Through faith, Mother of Peace, may the whole world sow hope and inner healing so that those who suffer may have the Grace of being touched by the maternal Rays of Your Heart.

Allow us, Most Holy Lady, to be ambassadors of Your Love and Your Peace.

May we be deserving of Your supreme Grace.

May each life be rebuilt so that reconciliation may be established and forgiveness may bring to all the end of disunion and indifference.

May each child of Yours recover the faith they need to continue forward until, like birds of light, we may know how to someday return to the Dwellings of the Celestial Father.

Queen of Peace,
Mother of Hope,
immeasurable Love,
prepare us, now and always,
for the awaited Return of Christ.

Amen.

Association Mary

Mother of the Divine Conception

---

Founded in December of 2012, at the request of the Virgin Mary, Association Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception, is a religious association without ties to any institutionalized religion. It has a philosophical-spiritual, ecumenical, humanitarian, charitable, cultural character, and it supports all activities that are indicated through the instructions transmitted by Christ Jesus, the Virgin Mary, and Saint Joseph.

Association Mary encourages a true ecumenical cooperation and a fraternal relationship among religions by means of prayer and altruistic service.

Contributions, in all their manifestations: monetary, material resources and volunteer work, make it possible for its activities to be free of charge, maintained and expanded.

Grace Mercy Order

---

An autonomous Christian and ecumenical religious organization, without formal ties to any institutionalized religion. It proposes monastic living through consecrated life, based on the teaching of Christ.

Founded in 2009, the Order seeks to unconditionally offer itself as an instrument of Divine Work, in communion with human beings and all other Kingdoms of Nature.

It is a proposal for fraternal and community life, consecrated to peace, prayer, the good and selfless service.

Irdin Publishing Association

An institution at the service of the expansion of consciousness.

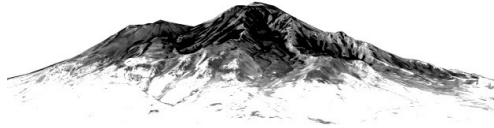

Its goal is to propagate works of a philosophical-spiritual nature in these times of global transformations and of great need for inner search. With teachings that present keys for the acknowledgment of the nonmaterial laws that govern the universe in which we live and sustain the Earth, it invites us to unravel the mysteries of our planet's history and enter into paths of peace.

Irdin is a non-profit publishing house run by volunteer collaborators.

give us peacemaking, faithful, meek hearts,
available for Your Son,
hearts uninterested in the life of the world.*

*Most Pure Virgin,
give us pure and unchanging hearts,
hearts mature in the Love of Your Son,
hearts defeated by the Truth of Christ.*

*Faithful Servant,
give us selfless hearts,
capable of not having time for themselves

PASSAGE FROM THE FOURTEENTH POEM

Through these verses, souls will be able to come closer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, feel Her Holy Peace and be impelled to follow the path of Christ's apostolate, of the experience of love and the return to the Heart of God.
