Apparition of Glorified Christ Jesus during the Sacred Call, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

What joy My Heart feels on seeing the works being accomplished, in the way that My Father had foreseen!

After having walked in the deserts and in the Andes, I return to My home to meet with My disciples and re-found again the spiritual bases of the Divine Work.

With inner tranquility, today I can be close to you to have you feel My trust and the grandeur of the Love of God, which is what renews all things, from time to time.

Today I come to present Myself to you before you fully enter into My Sacred Passion. After this Lent, many more things will be unleashed in the world, because the hour of My return is coming. And it will not be only one or two that will see Me, but rather millions, in living and resplendent Presence.

Meanwhile, continue to fervently pray to My Sacred Heart and to the Immaculate Heart of My Mother; because the Kingdom of God is near, after this cycle of chaos in which evil will be judged for all its errors, for all its roles and for all the souls that have lost their spiritual dignity before the Creator.

For this reason, each thing you do within My Spiritual and Divine Work is indispensable to Me. It is another step that I am taking beside you, giving you the impulse to walk on this path for the concretization of the Plan.

Even though the desperation in the world or within you may be very great, trust in Me.

Even if everything falls apart within you, around you or in your families, trust in Me.

Even though everything seems not to have a way out or a solution, trust in Me.

Even though you may be going through the greatest desert and do not know how to cross it, even though the soul may be dry without the Water of Life, trust in Me.

Even though you do not believe you will be able to overcome yourselves or transcend your resistances, trust in Me. For I will always give you the answer, I will show you the way and I will indicate the way out from any inner or spiritual captivity.

It is enough, companions, to trust in Me and I will be able to manifest My Will in you. Because the time has come for you to definitely live your spiritual mission, that mission that you committed to live with Me during past times and that, in this time and in this cycle, presents itself again in your lives so that you may be able to remember it and carry it out.

For all My suffering, I will save you. For all the martyrdoms and for all the Wounds, I will save you.

You must trust in My Celestial Power, for in this way, you will be able to give Me your lives for all that I hope to accomplish in your hearts as instruments of light.

I always bring the Government of My Father with Me, where Truth and the realization of the spiritual life exist. Through this Celestial Government, I concretize the designs of God on Earth and bring for souls a universe of opportunities, in which all can live their mission, although it may not seem so.

Through the new Sacred Week, I will come to prepare you for the new time, different from everything you have experienced until now. I would wish you could know that I will try to do everything possible in each one of your lives, around you and in your life projects; because My ardent desire is that you may be with Me all the time, above all in this cycle in which the planet gets worse through the density of humanity, and above all, because of its cruel actions.

Through your souls and your trust in My Heart, I will be able to carry peace to the world and it will be such a real and visible peace, that any soul that approaches you will feel it. Because I say to you: "Who trusts in Me is in eternal communion with Me, on Earth as in Heaven."

May your hearts, My children, be meek in these times, because meekness must fill the planet and beyond nations. May the fire of your prayers for the nations of the world be inextinguishable, eternal, and infinite so that the Mother of God may triumph.

I come now and in this time, every day, to be closer to you so that you may live My Message, so that you may fulfill it and carry it out on the surface of this planet, so that there may still exist columns of light that are able to illumine the planet, and above all, the nations in great conflicts.

My Heart prepares for the second time, after Rwanda, to return to Africa so as to carry Heaven to all those who suffer in a terrestrial purgatory. This will also be part of your mission by the merits achieved in My Passion, by the Blood and the Water spilled from My Side on the Cross.

And at last, I will reach Asia as well as Oceania, to finish concretizing the request My Father has made to Me. When you are experiencing that moment, you must remember that after that, I will be returning, at the most acute moment for humanity, in which everything will seem to be lost.

You must not lose the faith of your heart nor the trust in My Spirit. Thus, in these end times, I come to administer the sacraments with My Divinity. I come to open the doors for new consecrations according to the capacity of each soul, according to its surrender and availability to My Merciful Heart.

Everyone can experience the consecration according to their awakening and their union with God. It does not matter how, for God it is only important that it be real and that you work on this real consecration every day; knowing that you are sacrificing your lives for a greater and unknown Plan, that someday will be fulfilled on this Earth, when the thousand years of peace have come.

I do not wish to see your sad eyes or your downcast looks. Believe that the end of your captivity is near. Believe in inner freedom and the power of My Sacred Blood, which continues to be shed by the Angels of Light, to repopulate the Earth with universal Codes that can sanctify souls and redeem all lives.

The Sacred Chalice will be present during the days of My Sacred Passion; so that, through non-material, spiritual science, and symbolically, each of you may feel it in your hands and drink of this commitment, which is a source of renewal and of hope.

The Sacred Teraphim of God will radiate to the world the merits achieved by your Master and Lord more than two thousand years ago. And in this way, the past will not exist, because your King and Redeemer will unite the times and the spaces so that all may enter in consciousness into the events lived by your Lord, by your Divine Lady, by all His Apostles and even by His holy women.

When you cross this threshold together with Me and re-experience the events of the Passion of the Lord in the Holy Land of God, the testimonies and the miracles of love, believe, companions, that you will go through the doorway of this room being someone else forever, as long as you trust in Me in spite of the spiritual tempests of these times.

I will come in this next Sacred Week not only to bless the Cross of Emmanuel, so that yet another point on the planet may directly receive the Kingdom of God, but this time, on the Hill; but also, I will come like the sweet Master, as the simple King, as the humble Shepherd, to tell you face to face what it is that I need from you in this end time, before the Armageddon develops.

Many will not manage to be by My side when that moment comes, but with those that are at My side, in full trust and gratitude, I will accomplish My Project and carry out the Works of God until the thousand years of peace are instituted all over the planet.

I only ask that you continue at My side, in trust and gratitude, for in this way, I will be able to transform it all and nobody will be left behind.

So that you may see how great My Love and My Grace are for the souls of the world, and how full My Heart is of the Mercy of God that, sometimes I am unable to pour out the Rays of Grace over all His children.

I come to testify with My Presence to the consecration of new disciples of Mine, in likeness to the Holy Women of Jerusalem that, in this coming Sacred Week, will prepare the spaces for your Lord until the moment when He enters the Sepulcher to be anointed by the hands of My disciples of these times and thus, rise again in the brave hearts who have unconditionally said 'yes' to Me.

Today I would also like to give a special Grace to a family that has conceived within themselves the spirit of Christianity and the spiritual formation of an evolutionary life, according to the patterns of the universe and of the Will of My Father. Today, I will wash the feet of these simple people in the representation of My priests, to bring in this way to Earth another Grace from Heaven, in these hearts that represent many more families in need of the Divine intercession of your Lord.

My intent is to tell you as much as possible in a short time, but you will have Me present during the Sacred Week, a unique and unrepeatable moment in this cycle for each of your souls.

Blessed are they who will be here with Me during the next Sacred Week, in which the prodigies and the miracles of God will be visible among your hearts and the Holy Spirit of God will come, like at Pentecost, to fill spirits with its sacred gifts. Trust that this will be so and will be carried out, because it is the ardent desire of My Father and the plea of My Heart.

Today I come showing the world My five principal Wounds, the Wounds of the Glorification of the Lord, the Wounds that were transfigured and were illumined during the Ascension of your Lord. And these same Codes, these same Graces and this Mercy, will return to the world today to be placed in trust in the hearts of all those who say 'yes'.

Bring Me water to bless the feet and consecrate the paths of those that today I have chosen in representation of many more. Bring here the hearts of gold, to place them in the heart of My new servants and so that all may experience, at this moment, a renewal of the inner consecration.

Below this stage, prepare four chairs with foot-washing basins, so that this family may receive the Sacrament. Today I will witness this moment because My Father has requested it of Me. This means that I will be working with the consciousnesses of the families of the world, above all with those families that have become separated and divided through a lack of love and of compassion.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Incense.

"Lord of Love, Father of Compassion and of Mercy, bless all these elements so that Your extraordinary and inexplicable Graces may expand into these souls that will today be sanctified by Your Spirit, renewing the vow before Your Celestial Thrones for a definitive consecration to My Sacred Heart. So be it.

Lord of the Universe, Father of Grace and of Mercy, infuse Your Sacred Spirit in all You have created so that souls may recognize You in each space of this Creation. Amen."

When a heart is consecrated, a light is ignited in the world, and My Work of Mercy expands on Earth. This is the symbol of the hearts that will consecrate themselves to My Heart and will persist for Me, in spite of what happens.

Father, just as I said to You on the Cross: "Into Your Hands I entrust My Spirit," today I entrust, Father, all those who follow My paths, all those who struggle for the concretization of Your Divine Plan.

And renewing this moment, sanctifying all things, I remind you again of the extremely important moment of the last Supper.

Take and all eat of It, for this is My Body that will be given for you for the forgiveness of sins.

Take and drink, for this is My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant, that is shed by Your Master and Lord for all the martyrs of all times and of the end times, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in remembrance of Me, until your Master and Lord returns to the world to sanctify the planet, and celebrate the Supper of glorious Reconciliation, of the triumph of the Light over evil. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

The new assistants can come up here for the Consecration.

May the Lord bless you in this new stage of your lives.

My daughters, may your inner strength never fail. May the fire of devotion to My Heart never end and temperance be established in your lives, so that the infinite Mercy of My Heart may be radiated to the world.

May all the families of the world be blessed.

May unity and love be established in all the marriages that have split apart.

May children learn from their parents about the Sacred Offering of God, the permanent and spontaneous giving of self for the realization of the Kingdom of God.

May suffering be alleviated.

May reconciliation and peace reign.

May hope blossom again in the bosom of families, so that all the families of the world, like the Sacred Family of Nazareth, receive the gift of joy forever, for serving God, your Creator. Amen.

And now that I have been a witness to the infinite miracles of God, in such impossible cases such as that of the families of the world, I want you to raise your voices so that, together with Me, you reach the Kingdom of the Heavens and more Graces of reparation and healing reach more hearts in the world, so that Peace, Love, and the Good may be established among beings.

In profound devotion and praise, you will sing "You are the King" for Your Lord.

I thank you for being with Me in this sacred preparation. The Lord blesses you in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today I thank you for being with My Heart.
