

Friday, October 22 of 2021

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE SACRED CALL

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

From My Heart, I emit the Silence of God for the world, the Silence that speaks about many things, the Silence of God that brings many reflections to His children.

Behold the Silence of God that comes to call humanity towards its inner quietude, to abandon the noise of this world, to listen, in the silence of the heart, to the Word of God that emits the power of His superior energy that transforms all.

Behold the Silence of God through the First-Born Son, who today comes to this world, once again, to rescue lost souls, to remove the chains of oppression from many of My companions, who, spiritually, are prisoners of evil. But I open the doors for them, to the Silence of God, because this is where they will be liberated.

Evil does not know silence, because silence will lead you towards inner unity, and in inner unity you will be strengthened to face the battle of these times so that you may have enough courage and bravery to face this planetary reality.

The Silence of God is unchangeable. Through the Heart of His most beloved Son, He brings to the world a Message of Peace, but also a Message of reflection so that the majority of His creatures not lose the sense of the Divine Purpose and may perceive that this planet is agonizing because of humanity, for all that it does, day by day.

The Silence of God, through My Merciful Heart, comes to announce to you, for the last time, the repentance of the heart, to make penance, to no longer transgress the laws of nature, because no being upon the surface of this planet knows them.

The Silence of God, through My Glorified Heart, comes to tell you not to challenge the Laws and not to challenge the times, because no one knows what will come tomorrow.

Through My Heart, the Silence of God speaks to each inner world, because the most culminating time is arriving. The pandemic and the climatic situation of this planet are the preamble of the end of times, the last part of the Armageddon.

The door of the Apocalypse is now very open, and, as you do not know what the Apocalypse is, I invite you not to challenge the Apocalypse, to not degenerate the Apocalypse with the evil actions of the men and women of the Earth, because suffering in this world has multiplied throughout the times, and there are still consciousnesses upon the surface of this planet that enjoy the suffering of others.

I ask, through the Silence of God:

Where is human sensitivity and dignity? I do not speak of anything spiritual, but rather of something deeply close to you.

Where is human fraternity?

Where is the human love that, although it may be imperfect, will never be capable of doing evil?

All that the world faces today, the universe also faces it with you. The Central Sun of the Galaxy, more and more, emits powerful and transforming rays throughout the three planes of consciousness.

As you do not know the powerful currents of the universe, the Silence of God also speaks to you and tells you not to challenge these currents, to not oppose these currents, but, unfortunately, I know that many will still challenge them.

I come at this moment as the great spiritual amnesty for your lives, and I expand My offer throughout this universe and in this Creation even more so that not only the merits of My Passion may help you, but also the merits of My Ascension and My Spiritual Government may justify, before the universe and the Law, all your errors. Because the human being is not only a being of errors, this is an illusion. The human being does not know its inner universe, because it completely contradicts it.

The inner universe is something that God gave you with much Love. This inner universe is the Temple of God, it is His sacred Tabernacle, where the Most Holy Trinity can be present in your lives. But it seems all that We give you is not enough, and I know that this does not correspond to most, but it does, however, correspond to all of humanity. For this reason, throughout the times and all generations, there have been great saints and consciousnesses surrendered to Me, who not only justified their own sins but also the sins of the world.

Who else will offer themselves to My Heart and to the Heart of God, to be a victim of the Love of the Universe? This is nothing poetic nor mystical. This is a step of the consciousness, of the one who takes the risk of living in Christ and for Christ, of the one who, in spite of their miseries, errors or sins, stands up again, every day, to begin anew, as if nothing had passed.

This is the Christ who becomes consecrated to Me. This is the consciousness that Christifies itself for Me, not only by giving itself for others, but also by living for others, serving for others, as well as surrendering for the Kingdoms of Nature, because not only the human being needs love, the Kingdoms of Nature also need love and redemption.

With the world view that presents itself to the Silence of God, I invite you to reflect upon all these teachings. From beginning to end, I invite you to meditate upon this Message, because My Words are finalizing, and the universe is preparing for My Return, a Return that is unknown to the human being of the surface because only God knows how I will return and My Celestial Mother, who has been your Mother since the moment of the Cross, and who is the Guardian of My Return to humanity. She is the caretaker of the secrets of My Heart.

For this reason, My Mother, who is your Mother, always asks you to pray so that My secrets, which are My Prophecies, may not be fulfilled, but rather that only the great promises of My Heart be fulfilled, for each one of you, for each one of your brothers and sisters.

Like the light of the sun that illuminates you today, thus, I come from the universe. Thus, I bring My Spiritual Government, from the heart of this universe called Andromeda, the favorite dwelling of the Supreme Divinity, to guide, accompany and rule all Its material universe.

I come from Andromeda, this is the place that God has given Me after My Ascension, because to be at the right side of God, sitting in His Throne, near His Heart, is to be fulfilling His Will, as His Son fulfilled it, since the beginning of His Birth on Earth.

For this reason, I come to tell all My companions, to all souls that postulate themselves to be victims of My Love, at some moment of their lives, to keep moving ahead, to be brave, persevering and determined, for their hearts to never become cold, and for their hearts not to become tepid, may their hearts feel the fire of My Love so as to be able to renew this wounded and outraged Earth, to be able to heal this humanity that is sick and lost due to the lack of spiritual guidance.

But I reappear in these times to bring to the world the Message of preparation of My Return, but I also come to bring, through the Silence of God, the Message of warning to humanity because the doors of My Mercy are still open but souls still continue submerging through the doors of the abysses.

Children, do not let yourselves be dragged nor pushed by evil, however, do not challenge it. May each blow you receive be an act of resignation and of a profound renunciation for those who still flagellate My Heart, especially for the priests of the Catholic Church who are the shame of the whole world, because to them I have entrusted My flocks, the most innocent and small flocks, and, due to the events experienced in these times within the Church, they have caused the smallest ones to lose the possibility of Christification throughout time.

Who will do something for this to be reversed? Who will be able to overcome the indignation and injustice in order to understand the sinners, just as I understand them and love them? You should know, companions, that you are in the times of experiencing great daring things so that My Love may triumph on this planet.

But I do not invite you to be unconscious or for you to lack discernment, because my ruler measures each sin, but My Heart, and, above all, My Mercy, transforms all and heals all in the hearts that repent before Me. Thus, you will be able to understand how sin dissolves before Love and how Love leads the consciousnesses to reconsider and remake their lives, in spite of what may have happened.

I would like to speak to you for a much longer time, but I know that your inner worlds and consciousnesses need some time to understand My Words and, above all, to grasp the vibration of My Message, because I do not come to be a judge, I come here to be your Savior and Redeemer, because, remember, I gave My Life for you up until the Cross, until the last moment of My expiration.

Each second of My Passion was offered for you, for humanity, therefore, I invite the faithful devotees of My Sacred Heart to invoke the power of My Blood.

I invite you to pray all the prayers that may attract to the world the powerful Blood of Jesus so that the Christic codes of My universal Consciousness may enter the sick cells of humanity and all may be reversed.

Place your hope and faith in the power of My Blood, but do not expect results.

In a resigned way, offer each moment of prayer and allow Me to place the fruits of the prayer of the heart where it is most needed, and for the ones who most need it.

But as I say that you recognize the planetary situation and all the aggressions that the world is experiencing, I invite you to renew your faith and, above all, your confidence in Me.

I ask you not to do the same as the apostles did, who, by lack of faith and confidence, were besieged by My enemy. Fear embraced them and they doubted Christ, leaving Him alone and hanging from the Cross.

Be like the holy women who transcended all situations and difficulties, be like the first helpers of Christ on Earth, who never doubted, who did not fear to face any adversity to be close to the Lord and heal Him with their kisses of love, because it was their kisses of love, the love of the holy women, that, on the second day of having been at the sepulcher, closed the Wounds of the Lord. This is a mystery that I reveal to you today, the simple yet true mystery of love that surrenders in faith at the Feet of the Lord.

Today, I again receive within My Heart all prayers and intentions.

I know that each one of you, and also your families, loved ones, friends, companions and nations, face the end of these times, a very unknown time to all, a time that many do not even know how to go through.

However, do not fear, because the victory of My Kingdom is approaching, and the New Earth will rise in the hearts that believed in Me.

Let all those who listen to Me be aware that I know your intentions, your requests and even your pleas. Be patient and persevere. My spiritual priesthood blesses you and illuminates your steps so that you can cross the darkness of these times with the absolute confidence that I am returning.

For this reason, I need to dwell in your hearts, I need to be present in many more hearts, just as I was in the hearts of My apostles, and of the holy women.

Today I again give you the Commandment that I gave to My apostles and to the holy women: "Forgive one another and reconcile, love one another as I have loved you and as I love you today, because, in the Love of the Almighty, you will overcome everything, but if you step out of this Love, you will take a long time to reach that, be patient in Love, and all will be healed."

I will now leave you the greatest experience of My Love, through the Spiritual Communion, and remember that in the Sacrament of the Altar lies your redemption and your renewal, for your entire lives.

The Son of the Father now retreats into the Silence of God so that many more may enter the Silence of the Father.

I absolve you, but I also bless you, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.