APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE SECOND DAY OF THE 110TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Like the breeze that envelopes you today, so will be the announcement of My arrival will be, illuminating the Earth, which is in darkness, so it can be reborn and thus resurrect from its spiritual, moral and physical captivity.

I will return like this Sun, which also illuminates you today. But the power that I will reflect and the Light that I will expand will be more intense than those of hundreds of suns in this material universe, because I will come to transmute the planet and liberate it once and for all.

To My right and to My left will be the Archangels, the Creator Fathers who, as it was at the beginning and in the origin of Creation, will re-establish the Project for this planet and also for others.

It will be necessary for the Source of Creation to approach the world and, from Its spiritual plane, again pour out upon the souls the codes of life and redemption achieved in the sorrowful Passion of Christ and experienced in the agony of the Mother of God, who accompanied Him at each step of the Calvary.

All these merits, absolutely selfless and offered to the Eternal Father by the angels of Creation, who keep these codes of life in their Chalices, will again be deposited during the emergence of the New Humanity.

But so that this may happen, it will have to be justified and also confirmed, through the lives of those who say 'yes' to God, those who are walking by the side of Christ, walking, seeking within themselves the Kingdom of the Heavens and the Promised Land.

This is why We are at the transition toward this moment, which is not far in this material and spiritual time.

Thus, the great justification will be the treasures that My apostles and My disciples will keep, all the spiritual and divine Relics that Christ gathered through His Death and His Resurrection, through the Blood that, drop by drop, was shed for the remission of the sins of the world and for the salvation of Earth's Project.

Only the Light of God, permeated by His deepest Eternal and Divine Love, will be able to solve the current planetary situation, re-order the world, re-size the human race, for those who must still remain here, giving continuity to Christ's Work of Love on Earth.

This is why I Am here on this day to know who will follow Me and who will give continuity to My Redeeming Project of souls of the Earth.

I pray so that all may achieve this because I know that difficult moments will still be lived, when souls will be placed in strong experiences, which will be helpful for them to grow internally and to mature on the Christic path of the degrees of love and evolution.

The guardian angels protect souls at each moment, especially when they are willing to live according to the Will determined by God, without interfering with the destiny that has been written, since the beginning for each one of you.

This is why your Master and Lord, in the presence of the Archangels, the Creator Fathers, is at this great inner, spiritual and also universal moment, when the souls of this humanity must confirm themselves, once and for all. Thus, upon My Return, I will be able to make this planet and this humanity re-emerge from the abysses where they have placed themselves, and from the conflicts that they still continue to live due to not knowing the true Love of God and not opening up, as a civilization of the Earth, for this race to be permeated and filled with the same codes that your Master and Lord received in the Agony of the Garden of Gethsemane.

This is why I carry today in My Hands a Book with blank pages. like those carried by the Archangels, the Creator Fathers.

Why is it blank?

Do this Book and the Books of the Creator Fathers have within themselves the history of humanity, with its correct moves and errors, with its victories and triumphs?

I answer you that yes, these Books have this. But they are blank now because humanity is at its moment of inflection and souls must respond to confirm the continuity of this Project and of this planet's evolution within the Confederate World.

Who will write on these Books, through adherence and the surrender of life?

Who will write correct moves, triumphs and victories through Christ's Love? And who will cease to write errors, sins, offenses and all negligence?

Who will illuminate the history written in these books through the degrees of love, devotion, obedience and reverence?

Here is the Book of the spiritual life of humanity, which must be re-written by the fidelity of souls and by the good hearts that, despite their deserts and tests, despite their painful and traumatic experiences, despite everything, say 'yes' to Me in trust, love and determination.

We are within the material time of life, but the Real Time is approaching, and We hope that these Books, which are in the hands of the Archangels, the Creator Fathers, and in the Hands of Christ, your Lord, will be written by the redemption of the apostles and the surrender of the brave, so that My Legacy may be perpetuated in the world through priestly and religious life.

Be capable of understanding what I am telling you, be capable of trying and of living it.

My Love has no exceptions, My Love has prodigies, graces and mercies.

This is the last thing I wanted to tell you in this Marathon, because I hope you will meditate upon My Words. You will deepen into My Messages and be capable of intuiting and perceiving all that I Am saying to you out of Love.

Let us continue to pray to God, not only for His Mercy, His Grace and His Peace, but also so that the apostles of the end of times may be there with me, without hesitating, without oscillating, where I need them and when I call them by their names.

My Heart rejoices for the good and prayerful souls. My Heart feels the souls that try to relieve it. In all of them lies My refuge, in your lives lies My Peace, in your fidelity lies My Eternal Confidence.

I bless you again with My Peace. However, this time also with My Eternal Light, so that the world may keep being transformed, redeemed and transfigured, so that the pillars that I try to found upon the surface of the Earth through My apostles and My souls may be solid and firm pillars that can fully love My Legacy, so that My Christic Love may be present throughout the world.

Accompany the Spiritual Hierarchy in all that it will do in North-America, because, however much the times urge and the difficulties increase, Christ's Love, which comes from the Supreme Source, will always triumph and make all hearts new and free from evil.

I leave you My Peace once more.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
