APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, DURING THE SACRED CALL

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The one who truly is with Me will never perish.

If you are here today, it is because you want to be with Me, accompanying your Master and Lord in this important and definitive task during the Holy Week, when the deepest codes of My Heart will be offered to each one of you once again; because My goal is that you may be New Christs, and until that happens, I will not rest.

This is why today I elevate to God the inner temple of each one, a temple that has been transformed by Me throughout the times so that the souls on this surface may live their mission, regardless of what may happen or of the event that may present itself in their lives.

If you are already decided to follow My steps, if your lives already recognize Me as the One and Only Lord, what should you fear? Because in My Heart there is a place for each one, a place that waits for you yourselves to find it through your life of consecration, self-giving and service.

There, in the simplest things of life, you will reflect your true life, where your souls will be able to govern at last, where your resistances will dissolve and they will no longer be an obstacle for you to take the last step.

However, the steps that each one of you must take have their moment and their time. You must not anticipate something that has not happened yet, you must follow the rhythm of your own hearts, you must follow the impulse of your own spirits, because your spirits already know what they must do in this world.

Let yourselves be guided by your spirits, so that, when you experience this coming Sacred Week, your decisions may have been definitively made, because we do not have time any longer.

While the events on the planet precipitate, I need, I need the New Christs, those who dare to walk divested of themselves, those who do not fear My Redeeming Fire, those who allow themselves to be molded by My own Hands, so that I may create the form and the perfect model that God needs for the end of these times, because I will never do anything that you do not allow Me to.

Know that My Love is infinite and incalculable, and it is in this frequency that you must live, because the world lives under the frequency of hatred, revenge, and death.

The New Christs must be present in this cycle, to justify all the errors of the world, and I know that this cannot be understood by the mind.

It is the spirit that, through the heart, will give you the wisdom. Because I need your lives to be My own Word, your acts and actions, the facts of each one of your lives to be examples of service, mercy and forgiveness. Because I want you to know, attentively, that this will placate the injustice that many hearts live in the world.

You know that this world has gone mad, because there is no discernment any longer, because there is no wisdom and, as there is no wisdom, many hearts have lost connection with the Higher Love, and only suffer and suffer. But there are groups of souls in the world that are placed under this condition, and I know they do not deserve it.

But so that I may remove all these situations from humanity, when the time of My Return is fulfilled, there must be blessed ones and servers of Christ on Earth. I know that millions of souls aspire to this path.

But the very situations of your lives must not paralyze you. You must learn to understand the causes that you yourselves generate, and the results of these causes in your lives.

Make yourselves responsible first of yourselves, this is the same that I asked of My apostles: make themselves responsible for the mission that they had to fulfill. Because on the fulfillment of that mission, which is so similar to the one that you live today on Earth, will depend the result that Christ will be able to have in His most culminating moment in the world, a moment when the Lord and Master will remove the darkness of the entire planet, just as He did from the moment of His Birth up to His Death on the Cross.

Because the world, at this very moment, in the face of so many errors and so much injustice, cannot justify itself. But the New Christs who give their lives and their consciousnesses into the Hands of the Lord, will be able to justify all errors, so that the world may live a new age, free from injustice and suffering, free from all duality.

I need you to enter through the door that I Am opening in the coming Sacred Week. It is one of the last doors that I spiritually open upon the world, and this is possible due to the Lent time, when souls can receive the impulses they need, even while, up to the last moments of their lives they have to face their own imperfection.

My Eyes come to contemplate the same that I contemplated from My apostles. My Heart comes to seek what your hearts can give Me.

This is why I have brought the Holy Chalice and have placed it on top of the Hill, so that, in the next Holy Night, just as your Master and Lord experienced, the Steward Angel may give you to drink of My precious codes of Life and you may renew your commitment, although you see, in this time, a cruel and terrifying world. But it is a moment for you to accept that we are in the Apocalypse, a preamble that announces the culminating Coming of Christ to Earth.

Because when I Am present, the great decision will be made, which will have repercussions not only on this planet, but also in the whole universe, and this will reach the Spiritual Universe, where Our Father-Mother God is.

In this time, which is not very far away, hope will emerge in hearts again, and an unknown happiness will invade all of you and your brothers and sisters. Overnight, you will no longer know what suffering is, because My Love will dissolve it completely.

You will feel the same impulse that the apostles and the holy women felt, which renewed them so that they could live the path of evangelization, be missionaries of the Sacred Relics of Christ on Earth, together with the Most Holy Mother. Contemplate this moment, affirm this moment in yourselves.

The desert of the planet will end. Souls will no longer agonize and there will be no one on this surface who will die due to injustice. Because the Powers of Heaven will move, the Laws will manifest the Divine Will, angels and archangels, known and unknown, will present themselves, the trumpets will sound and there will be no one on this surface that will not be able to hear them.

This will be the indicated moment, the Glorious Return of Christ. An extremely important moment to God, because His Hand will seal the Earth and humanity. The Just will enter the Kingdom of the Heavens, the unjust will live their judgment so that they may be redeemed, including the angel that fell from Heaven will be judged.

If the Precious Blood of My Body was shed upon the world, and I died for you and offered even My last sigh for you, what will I not be able to offer for the world when I return?

Souls will know My Glory. The mysteries of My Heart will be unveiled. The secrets in Heaven will no longer exist, because God has no mysteries. God is the expression of the Living, Eternal and Inexhaustible Love. This will bring bliss to all the hearts that have believed in Me until the end.

Therefore, tell the world and your loved ones to repent, just as Christ did penance in the Garden of Gethsemane, and has been carrying all the sins of the world on His Back, from that moment until the end of times.

The only thing that I ask you is to never forget to love one another. You must not be divided, because behold the Unity of God, which makes Himself present in Divinity, Soul and Spirit, just as He made Himself present in the Holy Cenacle, blessing the apostles and the holy women. Meanwhile, I will always wait for you.

I come to bear witness of My Word, so that your burdens may be dissolved, so that relief may come to all, so that you may trust in Me, just as many, throughout the times, have trusted in Christ up to the end.

Because in truth I tell you that each one of you will have their definitive hour, just as your Master and Lord had His sacred and definitive hour in the Garden of Gethsemane. Do not fear that moment, because the Invincible Light of God will always emerge from the dark night. And the one who holds on to that Light, will hold onto My Mantle, and will be inexplicably healed.

As a testimonial of Love, today I come to bless and consecrate two daughters of Mine, who will receive important names in this new cycle of their consciousnesses and lives. These names are important to Me for what they represent in this stage which the world is experiencing.

And through this testimonial of consecration that we will live now, I want to awaken in all, the importance for all to renew your vows every day. Because each one, from their experience and, above all, from their hearts, can live a vow with Me. Remember that I do not seek perfect ones, I seek sinners, simple and true hearts, open to embrace My Will.

I was waiting for this moment of consecration so that all may be witnesses, just as My apostles and the holy women, of all I do and all I say is for one reason, it is for a miracle of Love.

I Am contemplating now what your inner worlds feel. Because through Me, God observes you, the God of Love and Goodness.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Let us prepare incense and blessed water, and Friar Baltazar will carry out this consecration, at the request of our Master.

Patricia and Debora.

Let us accompany this moment of consecration with the song "Consecration." And we will accompany the sisters in this offering before the Face of Christ, Our Lord, who is present and accompanying this moment.

My daughters, may you always sing for those who become silent, may your voices be the Voice of God on Earth, to heal wounded hearts, bring peace to the hearts that do not have peace, renew all those who have lost hope.

Therefore, on this sacred night, offer this consecration for all those who do not consecrate themselves. And then elevate this offering during the Eucharistic Celebration, with this motive and this end.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Today, Debora, the Lord consecrates you as María de los Inocentes, for all the innocent that suffer in the world.

Today, Patricia, Our Lord consecrates you as Clemencia, for all those who are under the yoke of impunity, so that all may live liberation from spiritual slavery.

Thus, I consecrate you in the name of God's Love and His Holy Will.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I thank you for having been with Me today, we are on the way to the Sacred Week.
