

Sunday, November 24 of 2019

Daily Message of the Glorified Christ Jesus, transmitted in the city of Mendoza, Argentina, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

As of the coming year, the withdrawal of the daily Apparitions of your Master and Lord is approaching, and with sadness in My Heart for this parting, I respond to the Infinite Will of Creation.

When that moment arrives, your hearts will no longer be able to have doubts about what you came to do and to fulfill in this wounded world.

In spite of the deserts still left to cross, in spite of the tribulations still left to experience, even though you have still something to learn, My Word will be your sustenance and your strength for crossing the end of these times.

Thus, do not lose My impulses, because they are the last, but also do not get used to listening to My Words, because otherwise, My Words would be falling into the void.

Avail yourselves of the Love the Sacraments provide for you, and thus, take on your path of redemption and apostleship; because although you may be on My Ship, strong winds and storms will still come, which will attempt to cause you to desist from the path you have chosen.

At this crucial moment, fix your gaze on My Sacred Heart and in your cells, affirm the Divine Power of My Blood; in this way, you will triumph and win many times in My Name; you will carry My Divine Mercy to the world and My priests will forgive in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

There will be no greater gloom or darkness that you cannot cross through the Light My Heart gives you. Be brave and continue forward, humanity still suffers the price of its own actions.

I will be in the Universe of My Father, waiting for the celestial order to return to the Earth in the most painful hour of the planet, and in that moment, I will call you by your real name so you may follow Me.

I thank you for holding My Words in your heart!

Who blesses you,

Your Master and Lord, Christ Jesus