Weekly message of Mary, Queen of Divine Purity, transmitted in the city of Vitoria, Espirito Santo, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías

My dear children,

After an important meeting with all of you, on September 12 and 13, in Vitoria, Espirito Santo; today, on this day of infinite Mercy, I ask you to seek and live in the purity of the heart at this time, so that the world may regain the innocence it has lost before God.

As Mother of the Most Holy Purity, I tell you to return to the true origin of your beings, to return to the sense of pure love of the heart.

The Lord needs imperfect and sinful souls to carry out His most pure works of peace and conversion.

In the sacred school that My Immaculate Heart lived on Earth, the Divine Purity was gestated in My Being before receiving the Grace of the Messiah.

That purity of which I speak, and that you should seek, is the purity of your intentions, it is the purity that does not generate judgments nor conflicts because the Divine Purity is the shield against your own sense of life that leads you to error.

The Divine Purity is the essence, the flower of My Heart, it is the universal principle that My Holy Spirit emanates through love and compassion.

For this reason, I beg you, dear children, to seek this ray of purity that flows fluidly from the Sacred Heart of God towards the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary because in its purity you will be able to recognize the power of forgiveness and Mercy.

I return to the world to remind you of the essence of the Divine Purity. All humanity has lost pure sincerity of heart because the world itself and the enemy have taken it upon themselves to extinguish this inner purity.

Pray and meditate, during this coming week, on your pure acts of heart. This way you will understand from your spirit how true you are before life and before your brothers and sisters.

As your Most Pure Holy Mother, I want you not to judge yourselves, but to observe and learn through the serenity that My beloved Son radiates to you. In Christ lies the living example of the purity of love and humility for families, priests the religious, the laypeople and the devotees of My Heart.

Week by week, I truly try so that, through prayer, one day you will die to yourselves and awaken to the Most Pure Universe of God; because in truth I tell you, My little ones, that if you seek purity of intention, the world will heal from the sea of impurities in which it lives.

To be part of the new Earth, you will need to purify yourselves through prayer, communion, confession and the pure forgiveness that your little lives can reflect when you are faced with your impurities and the impurities of others.

The pure Love of Christ, of the Father and of the Holy Spirit, will be your endless spiritual force to reach the Kingdom of the Holy Purity of the Creator. By your effort to day by day live Sacred Purity, God can make humanity free from the great impurities and, as a universal grace, receive the Divine Mercy of My Son.

Be pure, try it every day. While waking up each day, call upon My Divine Purity. I will help whoever decides to be pure of heart.

I thank you for living My most pure call for peace!

Your Mother, Who blesses you and loves you.

Thank you, dear children!

Mary, Mother of the Most Holy Purity of the Heart
