DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED DURING THE TRIP FROM SAO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Dear child:

When you see winds coming that are contrary to the life of the spirit, it is a sign that something grand is about to transcend. Keep your faith and your trust in the Father, because He already knows your exiles, your deserts, and all the voids of your soul.

Certain tests, at this time, reach the life of the apostles to confirm them on the path of Christification and of inner transformation.

Do not fear to see yourself naked, and to find yourself before the greatest miseries of your human life. My Son has taught you to persevere in love and in unity with the Kingdom of the Heavens.

The innumerable battles and disagreements with the inner part of your being no longer matter; now it is primordial to continue struggling every day to learn to overcome yourself, and so to show the Universe that the new and peacemaker Christs are on their way.

Be strong in your trust in God. His Love will help you even if everything is too difficult.

God bless you now and always!

Who follows you in soul and heart,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
