

Friday, September 14 of 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Dear children,

Remember that you live in this world for your redemption and for your salvation. Do not detain the steps that My Son is manifesting from your hearts. In the moments of test and confirmation, do not look at the past, strengthen your spirit by means of the prayer of the heart. Unite your essences to the One and Only Essence of God so that My Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart of Jesus may be able to rescue you. Dear children, today I invite you to live in hope, hope of being reborn as redeemed souls, that ardently desire to be in God. I will guide you.

My children, while your lives are in this world they must learn to forgive, to transcend and to love above all things. Remember, My children, that this is the lesson for the disciple of My Son: to love above all circumstances.

Dear children, today I call you to trust in Forgiveness and in Mercy, I invite you to reconcile your existence with God. My Maternal Heart knows you very well, It knows what it is that you feel, think and do, because as Mother I come to the world to correct the mistakes of the hearts through My message and My Maternal Love.

If you fall due to some obstacle, dear children, get up as Lazarus got up when he was called by the Love of Jesus. Receive in your lives the Redeeming Love of My Son so that, in your dialogue with His Divine Heart, He may heal you from within.

Dear children, begin this day praying for the Redemption of humanity.

Go forward, My little ones!

Trust the Almighty God because He loves you.

Thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity