My little sons, My little daughters. A soul donated to the Living God, the soul that prays is with Me. The soul that prays lives the promise of the New Kingdom. The soul that prays frees itself from its own pain and gives relief to its brothers and sisters through its prayers. The soul that prays transcends fear because it is a soul that is in the delight and mercy of God.

The soul that prays is working as a living heart for Peace. The soul that prays is in the promise of the coming Heavens, which will come to the aid of humanity. The soul that prays will know the Holy Spirit because God will protect it with His Love.

The soul that prays receives wisdom from My Son and in the prayer of the heart awakens the consciousness for the Plan of God on Earth so that this Plan of Love is fulfilled. For this, the soul that prays may in prayer, help the world because it is a peaceful soul that accepts the Will of God.

The soul that prays has become part of the Marian army that through Christ Resurrected and Glorified aspires to be day by day in God the Father. The soul that prays is a companion of love and is the wife of the Divine Truth because this soul is united to the Laws of the Highest.

The soul that prays will work more for this world, for all souls that do not pray, do not adore and do not await God. Thus, dear children, the soul that prays will be in the sacrifice and in the prayer of the heart and this will be its shield and strength to be in the world.

Today, My children, I invite you to convert yourselves into a praying soul so that the Grace of God may be in each of your hearts and in the celestial horizon you may see the truth and guidance of God.

For this the souls that pray must be in My Son, the Redeemer. The soul that prays may be in the arms of Christ.

I will be with My Immaculate Heart guiding the souls that pray to God, our eternal inner aspiration.

Thank you for answering My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.
