

Saturday, July 14 of 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

Do not let your hearts grieve anymore; believe in the mystery of love that I am revealing to you. This, My children, will allow you to live the absolute trust in My Son and in My Maternal Heart.

Dear children, always raise your prayers towards Heaven. They are well received by the Great Heart of God because in this way, the Grace of Reparation can act as the Fire of the Holy Spirit and convert the pain of your hearts.

My little ones, today I invite you to keep praying the Mysteries of Contemplation of the Rosary so that in each one of the passages that My Son lived, you may be able to learn about love, sacrifice, surrender and faith. By the lack of these principles in the heart and in the life of many of My children, humanity has walked through mistakes that have offended God the Creator.

Therefore, dear children, the prayer of the heart and the prayer among united souls will open the Celestial Door so that all these gifts may be able to awaken in your lives and thus each one of your little hearts will become a faithful instrument of the Creator.

If humanity just stopped to think whether it is on the true path of God, many consequences would be able to be detained and humanity would avoid living the Law of the Universe. But if there are true groups of prayer that respond to My call for peace, My Maternal Promise is to intercede for everyone, especially for those who do not have God in their hearts.

In this defining time, it is necessary to learn in order to grow; you rely on many keys. Today again I give them to you: love, prayer, sacrifice and devotion. Through all of them, other more beautiful keys will be able to be awakened.

I thank you!

Thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity