DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SANTA FE, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

For the Spirit of Christ to awake in your hearts, you must truly look for it and learn with Him just as Jesus day by day looked for the Father and with Him learned and grew in perfection.

Before acting, Jesus meditated and felt in His Heart the best way to do all things. There were no superficialities in Him. There was no rule or common sense for His Actions: when dealing with each creature that He would meet on His path, He searched in God for what they needed and, thus, He acted under the Laws that are not from this world.

Human minds are tied to rules from this planet and close themselves when facing the so-called contradictions, when God Himself, children, is a great contradiction for the human beings, because He loves the imperfections of the beings, even when it seems that many walk with speed towards the abyss, He never closes the doors to Heaven, in the hope that, even at the last moment of perdition, the souls may look backwards and regret the path taken, giving themselves the opportunity to return.

Is God a permanent contradiction, children, or is the human mind the one that is distant from Truth and the Divine Laws?

God is Fair, but, at the same time, aspires to pour His Mercy, and facing the minimum movement of the human heart, gives - to the indifferent and unfaithful ones - the best of His Kingdom.

To be able to become a Christ, you must love the way the Father acts and imitate Him in all things. You must extirpate from your consciousnesses the permanent search for the mistakes of others, to search in everything for the opportunity to be merciful.

I am not telling you that you will stop being fair, because the true Justice - that is not from this world - is within the divine Love and only descends to Earth when the human beings choose to learn through it.

Every learning of your hearts depends only on yourselves. Even though it may seem incoherent to you, your paths are marked by you, and even God only observes you before acting.

The life of each one could be simpler, if you simply opened yourselves to unite to the Father.

Until today you do not know the power of Grace, and for not crying out for it you miss the opportunity to live what for you is impossible and unreachable. Grace is in the Hands of the Father ready to be shed, but the majority of the beings chooses to live in their impossibilities rather than to transcend the human laws and to live in this world with all the potential that, in truth, they bear inside themselves.

Many think that they do not reach Christification because they bring burdens from this life and from other ones that they are not able to stand and wounds that have not been able to heal yet, and so it is, but the power of Grace dissolves the weight of the past and closes the wounds of the heart. Also the Mercy of God is the greatest antidote of healing for the sick of spirit; but who cries out for it? Who believes in the power of the Divine Mercy?

Children, the service of being a Christ balances not only the mistakes of your own past, but also of entire civilizations of the Universe, and that is why you are here, in this world, at this time. That is why everything is at your disposal for you to reach this goal, but if the power of your faith is not greater than the limitations of the minds, you will always be tied up to yourselves and to the things of this world, without being able to contemplate the Truth, and to be Truth itself.

Believe that it is needed that you be very strong for this, however you use more strength to resist love than to surrender to it and to live it; you use more strength to keep your own will than to surrender to the Will of God; you use more strength to keep yourselves in the illusion than to discover the Truth, because the Truth no longer hides from anyone, only the one who clenches their eyes in order not to find it does not see it. You are taking more strength, children, to press in the hands the reins of your own life, believing you are controllers of yourselves and of the whole existence.

Open your hands and allow yourselves to be guided. Open your hearts and lose the fear to love. Recognize that you are ignorant and let yourselves be permeated by Truth. Recognize yourselves as imperfect and do not judge the imperfections of your fellow being.

But also recognize yourselves as children of God - creatures with a unique possibility to unite to the Father - and search for Him, find Him and live in Him. Search in Him for the answers, for the way of being, thinking, feeling. In humility say, "Father, I am here." And wait to hear His Answer, saying "Child, come to Me!".

Go to His Arms and, from there onward, start living and discover what Life truly is.
