

Thursday, February 18 of 2016

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS??????

Pray, serve, and live to heal the wounds of this planet, wounds that are ancient and that grow day after day, not only as a wound in the consciousness of the Earth but as a great wound in the Most Pure Heart of God.

Offer your life in consecration to God, in the name of His Plan, and convert each one of your actions into a constant reparation of the evils that humanity, also permanently, causes to the world.

When you wake up every morning, offer your day to God; ask Him to guide your steps, to work through your hands, to see the needs with your eyes, and to feel with your heart, so that you do not lack wisdom nor love.

All the evil that circulates today in the world is repairable, but not before humanity learns to love and forgive itself and its neighbor.

Every action of yours can change the destiny of the world, can alleviate the weight of the judgment that the planetary consciousness carries through the constant atrocities caused by humanity.

You are part of the human heart and must be aware of this all the time.

If you live to offer a victory to God, even though it may seem little, a soul that truly accomplishes its part changes the destiny of the universe.

To confirm what I say, your heart has the example of Christ, Who throughout His whole trajectory, changed the destiny and the existence of all Divine Creation, for there was not a single action of His that did not balance some evil that oppressed the world.

It is for this reason that humanitarian missions are so important for these times; but not only they can balance the destiny of this race, because human life, when truly consecrated to the Plan of God, can balance many things.

When the human consciousness is before extreme situations, it is naturally led into developing love, and from its depths emerge those purest feelings that, by law, they cannot emerge when the being is only involved with themselves. If humanity learned to think of their neighbor and experienced love without the need to face extreme situations, it could change the decadent state in which it is to be found.

The different species of the Kingdoms of Nature, as well as the different elements, have a unique spiritual consciousness; if each human being treated the animal they have before them as an offering for the whole consciousness of this species, they would be able to balance the atrocities that happen in remote places of the planet.

I tell you these things, child, so that you may learn to live your life more expansively, from the spiritual point of view. Do not be limited to your needs, to your chores, to your small life.

The life in the Light-Communities could balance all the lack of unity and fraternity of human consciousness.

The healthy and loving family life could balance the evils that the adversary causes, separating and destroying the families of the world.

The correct education of a child and the love that is imprinted in their consciousnesses could balance the bad psychic, emotional and spiritual influences that today's children receive.

Do not waste time thinking of how to serve God and how to transform yourself. Transform your life into an act of reparation and service. Go to the most lost, only with your pure and true intentions. Serve those most outraged among the Kingdoms of Nature, loving and helping the Kingdoms around you to evolve.

Rebuild peace on the planet by living peace.

Let the human potential develop from you and do not yield to the degeneration that grows day by day in the life of the majority of beings on this Earth, through the growth of chaos.

Make yourself an instrument of balance.

Believe what I tell you and have faith.

Experience for yourself the power of union with God and you will see that He will do in you things as great as He did in His Son because this is the Will of the Lord: that after the example of Christ, humanity may multiply His gifts and live permanently within the Creator.

He who guides you and will always guide you,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph