DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF JOINVILLE, SC, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Child,

Unite your heart with the Heart of God, so that He raises your small being to the Truth, reveals to you the reasons of the events of your life, shows you His Mysteries, and allows you to understand why He guides your steps in a certain way.

In these times, the Creator is avid for revealing Himself to the hearts of humankind, because the more the planetary purification approaches, the bigger is the need for the human consciousness to enter into the understanding of Truth and to be able to be conscious of the spiritual faces of the coming events, so that incomprehension and doubt do not have a place in the hearts of the self-summoned.

That is why, child, I call you to deepen in your own spiritual path, in your own union with God, as a service to be provided to all human consciousness.

Now is time for the self-summoned to deepen in their spiritual path, because what you have lived until today is part of a preparation and an inner growth, but the next events will bring, to all, tests that will take you to instant maturity and will not allow any place for energies that confuse you or distract you on the path.

Today I speak to each heart of the Earth that is willing to live the Truth.

I speak to you, who have opened yourself with heart and in spirit for the guidance of My Chaste Heart, because you know that My example is true and My words, when lived, will lead you to God.

Child, I call you to be an example to the others, because the confusion in the human mind grows each day and it will cost much to those who are awakening now to truly unite to God and transcend the limits of human consciousness in order to do it.

If you listen to Me and understand Me at this moment, it is because, at some point of your evolution, you have already lived the union with God and now you must remember it.

Many souls want to awake and take their steps, but concepts and spiritual instructions are not enough: they need a living example, just like you, child, that have needed the living example of Christ to awake.

Just as the Lord renounced all things to be an example of union with God to your heart and to those who were capable to see it, now your time has come, as a conscious servant of the Creator, to make your renunciation and to surrender at the Feet of the Creator what still prevents you from living His holy Will, so that you become a true instrument of God in this world that is each day more lost.

Child, if I tell you this now, it is because the time has come.

Meditate consciously on what I tell you and make yourself your own choices, because We will no longer be able to stop the events of the Earth and they will require from you, after all you have received, a faithful example, a true union with the Father, a heart that is willing to be an instrument of the Lord, eyes open, that will recognize the Master among the clouds and that will point Him out to the others who were searching for Him among human beings.

Unite to the Father, try to be awake, so that He will deposit His Gifts over you, and make yourself available for a complete transformation, more than you have ever been available until today.

My Chaste Heart will accompany you.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
