WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE SACRED HOUSE OF MARY, PAULISTA MOTHER, SAO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Children, for the balance of every war and of every conflict in the world, be meek, peaceful, fraternal and silent of heart.

For the establishment of peace, win all that which, in yourselves, impel you to confront the neighbor, either to stand yourselves out, to defend an opinion, or to not renounce, for not accepting your own difficulties and the difficulties of the neighbor.

Children, you already know that every conflict in the world is generated by evil, but also by the mind and by human behavior. You know that everything can be balanced when you generate sincere acts of peace. Everything can be transformed when each one sincerely assumes the transformation of their own life. For this reason, I ask you to not only pray for peace, but to be peaceful.

How will you ask God to concede the necessary grace for a nation to be pacified, if you daily nourish conflicts and lack of fraternity among humankind?

A soldier of this army of love is more than a praying being, it is a consciousness that makes a difference in the dark abyss of human life, because daily strives to win, in itself, what generates the wars and the conflicts of the world.

Renovate, children, the Campaign Sowing Love in Humanity. Ask for and grant forgiveness, reconcile yourselves every day, because - in a world of wars - there will always be what to forgive and to reconcile.

Sow love in the human consciousness, making your own life a garden of peace in which fraternal actions are fruitful and generate hope for this world.

Peace must be a permanent exercise in your consciousness. You must make a constant exercise of pacifying, forgiving and reconciling. Root out the wars and the conflicts of the world, starting by yourselves. Follow the example of The One who pacified first and who, being the Son of God, full of wisdom and Grace, renounced to His Will, to His Opinion, to His Majesty and to His Power, and remained in silence on the cross of the redemption of the sins of the world so that everyone would have a path, a truth, an example for life.

The cross of these times is not the same as the one of yesterday. The Calvary of today is trod day to day, transmuting and transforming, in yourselves, the sins of the human consciousness and making, thus, the difference on the Whole.

Renew yourselves, children, every day, and do not give way to conflicts. Institute peace! Live peace in your hearts!

I know that in these times of injustice and wars it is difficult to pacify yourself. However, these are the impossible things that We will ask you for: to forgive what, for humankind, is unforgivable; to pacify, when you are in the middle of great wars, chaos and confusion; to love and to sow love when around you others sow hatred and fear.

The seeds of love will transform the soil of the Earth. For this reason, do not give up and renew yourselves in this divine labor.

This One that accompanies you,

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
