

Sunday, April 10 of 2016

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF PEDRA BRANCA, SANTA CATARINA, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Children,

The awakening of the soul begins when your heart opens to discover the truth about yourself.

When a path to redemption is presented to you, do not fear and do not have suspicions, but rather know that you will never be the same from the moment you say 'yes' to the proposal that God has for your lives.

In the vastness of the Universe, the Creator multiplied Himself in His creatures, those essences that give Him an opportunity to develop the Love and Unity of His Sacred Heart.

Since the creation of your essences in the Cosmos, you have received from God a purpose to manifest a spiritual and divine attribute, that in all Creation, contributes to the possibility of continuing to evolve.

Since you were created, you have already had many experiences in the Universe and, you have tried, in many ways, to express the Divine Thought for each one of you.

This world in which you live is a great school of love, but also an opportunity of definition for your spirits. Even though you do not understand what I say to you at this moment, allow My words to open your eyes and awake you to a truth that is latent within every one of you.

I tell you that this planet is a school of definition because it is through your experiences in this world that you will dictate the course of your own evolution. Children, you have here the greatest opportunity for loving in the entire Cosmos, but you also have all the abysses in which to sink your own spirit. Because just as the intensity of the Light is, so it is also the intensity of the darkness. And in a very mysterious way for the human mind, a great divine Project is being designed here.

Today, children, I come to congregate new spirits in the purpose of living peace and love, because the times for experiment are now ending and, little by little, the laws of chaos take over the inner and outer life of the beings of this world.

I know that the awakening is sudden for many, and perhaps the leap we ask of you is great, but those who can see the events of the world with their hearts will know that we ask very little from you and that we multiply the sincere responses and the true prayers to intercede for this planet.

Children, it is for this reason that we call on you to take a step and discover the vast Universe that awaits you. We call on you to give meaning to your own existence and to realize that in transforming your own spirits, you can change the destiny of the Earth. Because that which you most need in these times are not material solutions, but rather the Mercy of God and unity with the Father, because, without food for the spirit, this world will perish.

I leave you My impulse of Peace and Love and I invite you to go forward.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph