

Wednesday, April 18 of 2018

APPARITION OF SAINT JOSEPH IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

May the blessing of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be over you.

I speak where time does not exist, there is only unity between creatures and God. And this dimension from where I come is where I want to take you so that you can perceive evolution on Earth in a different way, so that you can perceive life as it is.

For a moment, let your heart unite with Mine, let your eyes unite with My eyes, so that they may contemplate with me this world just as I see it.

I look at the world and see souls that seek awakening; I see hearts so distant from God and from the Truth, that they make their own consciousness suffer for their ignorance, without knowing that the healing and the path lie within themselves, and that with a simple change in attitude they can become another..

I look at the world and see the companions of God so many times confused by life on Earth, by its appearance, by its illusion.

Many ask themselves, "And who will be in this world without submerging in this illusion? How to stay in the Truth?"

In order to know the Truth, children, you need to love it, love it with all of your heart, wish to be in it and to be tired of so many illusions, so many mistakes, so many stumbles. This life has something unique to teach all of humanity, because all those who live on Earth today were summoned to live this cycle, some as their last opportunity of redemption and others as the last necessary step to cross the Portals of a new evolutionary cycle where they will no longer need to be so entangled in the things of the Earth because they will serve Creation in another way.

I look at the world and also find sincere hearts, which sincerely struggle with their human condition, but whose love for higher life is still not sufficient, because otherwise, this battle would not need to be so great. They still love the things of the Earth very much and nourish these aspects of consciousness of this life they would like to enjoy in a very human way. And when I say "human" to you, I speak of the humanity that was created in this world, distant from God, and not of what the human being is in truth and should express as was thought by the Father at the beginning.

All of you know, children, that what is missing in this world is Love, a Love directed to the Truth, a love directed to the correct place.

I cannot tell you that you do not know how to love, because for this you were created. It would be like saying that a pair of scissors does not know how to cut, that a shell cannot retain water. This is how it would be to say that the human heart does not know how to love, because it does know. But its will has deviated and its heart loves all things except that which would be the most important, which is the Will of God, His Purpose and His Plan.

What you still love is your own will and all that which corresponds to this will. You love those who are dear to you, because they act the way you want. You love those things that you like, the instructions that resonate in your hearts. You love the truth when it corresponds to your own will. And when God sends you something different, to correct your paths and redirect your love to the correct place, you no longer know how to love and believe that you cannot do it, that you cannot feel love for that which you do not believe, that you do not like, that is not convenient for you.

But today I tell you that the human heart can love all things, all.

It can love life and can also love those who destroy it, to give an opportunity of forgiveness and of redemption to your neighbor. You can love finding God on the top of the hills, love the plenitude that is to be with the Father, but you can also love God at the feet of the Cross, broken down on the floor by the weight of the wood on your backs.

This is the human heart.

The human heart can love when the Father speaks to it through His Messengers about the celestial Mysteries, the Mirrors of the Cosmos, the union with Nature, Unity and Peace, but it can also love when God asks them to be another, to make the efforts they do not want, to be in a way they think they do not know how to be.

I look at the world from Heaven and see how the purest Love of God gets lost within men, how the greatest divine treasure that was expressed in the beauty of Nature was expressed in each detail of the creation of the planet, in the perfection of each part that composes the human being, from its smallest particle to its spirit.

The human being is a small creator, so similar to its Father and Lord, but it does not know itself.

If you want to know yourselves, children, you must begin by recognizing your own ignorance and, knowing you are ignorant, awaken humility so that the Father may teach you what you truly are, what you were created for and why you are living everything you live on this Earth, what is the reason for these cycles, what is the reason for human existence.

All of this has an answer, an answer that the Divine Breath ardently expects to give you, because there is nothing so expected to God as the return of His children to His Heart.

And do you know what this return is? It is not that creatures will cease to exist and will become a luminous particle that will return to the Divine Consciousness. Creatures will keep existing, but they will recognize they are part of God and will express as He does, they will think of Him, they will live in Him, they will be Him. And His Heart, which seemed to be so distant from every creature, will awaken in each being and will manifest His Infinity.

He, who is all things, will be visible through His children.

There will no longer be individuals, but rather living parts of God that renew His Creation every day through the Love that overcomes itself in an eternal, incessant cycle.

Does what I tell you seem impossible?

But today, children, this is what I come to tell you, because the time has come to leave aside the pettiness of this life a little, in order to seek a little of this Truth.

The time has come to let God remake you on the inside and on the outside; for the human heart to return to the Father and for the Father to return to the human heart.

I look at the world and see God willing to express Himself in His creatures.

I look at the world and see the Father waiting for the answer of His children, expecting that the most important be not a job, money, comfort, the weekends. Because the Father is where time does not exist, and time will gradually cease to exist here because He will come to dwell in humans.

I know that many will hear My words and will not know what to do with this.

If you just aspire to live them, to know the truth about yourselves, in the depth of a spiritual science totally unknown to men. If you just consider that the most important thing in this time is for souls to be able to awaken and that if you cannot respond to the call of God, give the opportunity for those who can do it to do it, because the Father will first dwell in those who say "yes" and through these ones, He will awaken all men, will dissolve illusion and will attract His Truth to this world.

But for this, children, it is necessary to announce, to spread and to make the Divine Presence known. It is necessary to love, to make the heart available for Love, in spite of your difficulties and limitations.

Before you know what is unlimited, you must surrender to God because if you do not surrender to That which is Infinite, you will always hit the ceiling of your limitations when you try to uplift, because you want to do it by yourselves.

Surrender. Surrender every day. Say "no" to the human condition, say "no" to that which makes you give up, retrogress, stay at the point where you are.

And cry out, cry out to the Father, for Him to express Himself within you, cry out for His Truth to be alive, for illusion to disappear from your cells.

Cry out for your atoms to express the Infinity that they are, that from them the likeness with the Father may expand. That from them you may be reborn in life.

Cry out, make an effort to be different. And God, who is avid to respond to His children, will hear you.

Just as My eyes, the Eyes of the Father are put over the Earth, waiting for the slightest movement of His creatures to establish His Peace, His Kingdom and His Presence in this world.

Believe in what I tell you, and have Faith in a new life. In spite of all human, planetary, universal purification, have faith in a new life. Do not let the suffering and fear of your bones make you believe that you are barely this human condition.

Have Faith in a new life. Commune with the Body and Blood of Christ consecrated by His spiritual Presence at the altar and have faith that He is the new life.

Let the Eucharist be like the balm that enters your cells and awakens the God that dwells within you because, in a very mysterious way, He enters your bodies and permeates your consciousness, but He only manifests His Truth when you have faith that He is the Truth.

In this way, I bless you, and consecrating these elements on the altar, by the Power that God granted me through the Paternity of His Son, with the help of the angels and of the Archangels who bring the Ray and the Gift of Transubstantiation to this place, these elements are transformed.

Commune with them and have Faith in the new life, in the new man, in the new Consciousness, which today I tell you is the One that manifested at the beginning of all and from which you one day got lost.

That which is new to you, in reality, is the only Truth that you should manifest and live. Believe and have faith that his Truth awaits you, waits for you to seek it, to love it, not only with thought but to love it with the heart, to love it with conscience, conscience that is manifested in your actions, in your way of living, of treating your brothers and sisters, of being in the world. Thus Love is expressed.

This is what I wanted to tell you today.

And may My Words become life. Have faith and believe that this Word comes from God, although it is manifested through a human mouth.

The Lord has many Mysteries and, through different paths, reaches His children, until all creatures open the door to Him and let Him manifest Himself in their beings.

With this I bless you, I bless your lives, your families and this altar, so that it may become worthy of the Presence of Christ.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I thank you.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph