WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED AT MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRASIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

While new cycles continue to open, and your Lord remembers His Passion to rescue souls once again from the deepest abysses, you too, child, accompany each moment with the solemnity of the heart, with the sacrifice of life, with a surrender of love.

You too, remember the Footsteps of Christ with the Cross, allowing your consciousness to enter mysteries that you could not understand before.

Allow your being to know greater degrees of love and surrender, greater degrees of service and unity with God so that, like Christ on Calvary, your consciousness learns to be beyond the events of the world and, in the face of ignorance, chaos, of evil, humiliation or violence, be able to respond with a degree of love that goes beyond all these things.

Reflect, then, on what I say to you, meditate on the profound Love of Christ for life and for the Presence of His Father in all beings.

Place your eyes within the Eyes of Christ, your heart within the Heart of Christ and pray, contemplating His experience of the Cross, in which the pain, yes, did exist and was excruciating, in which the tiredness, yes, did exist and was exhausting, in which humiliation existed and was like a spear that slowly cut His Chest, in which abandonment existed and was like the greatest of sufferings.

And, beyond all this, far beyond were Love and Mercy, Compassion and Forgiveness, the understanding of human fragility and the knowledge of its greatness. All this was lived and experienced by Christ in every step with the Cross.

Feel the Love of His Mother on the path, the fortitude that was born in the Heart of the only living being capable of understanding that which Jesus experienced and who, even today, children, is capable of deeply understanding the heart of every creature. That is why She still accompanies every step of the Children of God, who are also Her children.

In the Calvary of these times, deepen your surrender and love and also your love for Mary. Come to know more deeply the silence of the Mother of God, who, in Her humility, seeks nothing more than to support the learning of Her children, to lift them up in every fall, to renew them in every trial.

May your heart expand today with the Heart of Christ, so that this cycle, which is being opened with the cross of the world, reveals to you one more step, a little more of the Love of God.

You have My blessing for this.

Your father and friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
