WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRASIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Crossing the door of the last opportunity, children, is to begin to tread a path of reparation in which you will no longer fix your gaze on all the mistakes of the past or on all the expectations of the future, but you will live in the present moment the opportunity to repair and do things differently, not doing those things you already know should not be done.

Crossing the door of the last opportunity is a cycle to reap all the fruits you have planted. From the fruits of mistakes, you will reap the learnings, and from the fruits of successful deeds, you will reap the merits to awaken the consciousness more deeply and to come closer to God.

Having the door of the last opportunity before your eyes should not mean a punishment or even a warning, even though it is a heavenly warning. This door should symbolize for you the Love of God and His Infinite Grace, because in times when humanity should already be submerged in the Laws of Correction and Divine Justice, you still receive Grace and Mercy.

This door has opened before all the Children of God, and the decision to cross it belongs to each creature, who decides to leave behind their deepest mistakes in order to experience a profound love, capable of balancing the indifferences, misconceptions and wrong paths taken by beings, to lead them once again to the Heart of the Father.

Nothing, children, will prevent you from crossing this door, except yourselves, because God calls you, but He does not walk with your feet when you have not yet chosen to be His instruments.

Mercy still flows upon Earth, the flow of the Heart of Christ is still open for souls. Who will turn their heart into a chalice to receive Him?

You have My blessing for this.

Your father and friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
