

Saturday, November 4 of 2017

Special message of Jesus Christ, transmitted for the 52nd Marathon of the Divine Mercy, in the city of Valparaíso, Chile, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Second Message

As I come from the heart of this universe, I would like your souls to rise up to meet Me. This will allow, at this time, for you to create this perfect Communion between your souls and My Heart.

I would like you to open your innermost ears to listen to My Message and to make it part of your lives, because knowledge will not be enough, it will be necessary to apply it to your lives for My Plan to be fulfilled, step by step.

Today I come to give continuity to what I said yesterday. I come to extend this special message to all My companions, because it is still necessary that you grow in love and in truth, without leaving behind what you have to transform, all that you have to transcend, all that you have to aspire to reach in these difficult times, in which the Plan experiences many risks unknown to the souls, because, in many cases, they will not be attentive to the signs that the universe sends.

Now, I invite you to double the efforts; I invite you to be considerate with one another, as I taught the apostles in the past.

You must fulfill the basic rules of evolution because in this way, you will know the Law and not only just have knowledge of it.

This is one of the reasons why the souls of this world and, most of all, those souls that are My companions, do not know how to internalize the impulses that My Heart sends you from time to time, trying to raise the souls more each time towards the Truth and towards the Sacred Knowledge.

When you do not know how to internalize what we tell you, you get lost somewhere along the path and may be confused, without knowing where to go or what to do.

But there is a master-key, for all of this, which is trust. Trust in all that is presented. Trust in all that is proposed. Trust in all that is revealed.

Because, in essence, everything goes beyond your possibilities, knowledge, intellect.

I have not come to build My Kingdom in the concrete minds because, otherwise, it would not have made sense for me to come to this world to incarnate to witness, on this plane, the Presence of the Love of God.

It is that Love that will reveal My Kingdom to you. It is that Love that will unite you forever. It is that Love that will never separate you. For wherever Love is, I am present, throwing seeds of Light on fertile soil, which will then bear Me fruit, so that in the end, they will be Gifts that I will offer in Glory to the Creator.

Therefore I search in the more simple hearts what is good and true. I glorify Myself in the humble hearts. I distance Myself from the resistant hearts. I distance Myself from those who do not want to listen to Me, because I know that they fear the real Love because they have never known it completely, because they have never had the courage to take a step and to let themselves be torn inside, until Love makes them hurt deeply.

Therefore, I deposit My inner Wounds in the hearts that know My Love.

I cannot give My Legacy to abstract minds. The world and its humanity would completely lose their way because of their ambition and pride. I need to break what is still rigid and hard.

Therefore, I use My great hammer of Light and strike that which is most resistant for it to be broken one day and so that all may surrender at My Feet; not for Me, but for My Father who is just and compassionate, who deserves the goodness of your hearts and souls for all He has given you in spite of your miseries, in spite of your mistakes, in spite of your falls.

I come to elevate the consciousness of humanity to another point because, even if it does not seem so, I am here in constancy and faith to move forward.

Therefore, to those who follow Me in these times, who say they are My companions on the path and in spiritual experience, I encourage them to live the changes without resistance or restriction.

I invite you to not put a limit on your consciousnesses and to know how to recognize, with humility, the Sacred Knowledge that comes from God by means of Our Sacred Hearts, for this humanity of the surface.

Thus I will be able to bring even more My Heaven, the Heaven of My Father, His Heavenly Universe and My Angels will be following every step, every moment as well as every trial, just as they followed Me from the Garden of Gethsemane to the Cross.

The sufferings that I offer to My companions of this world, are feared by some because they do not know them, because, before everything, they do not dare to love the Will that I bring to fulfill My Projects and My Designs in their lives.

I have chosen to be among these sacred mountains of the Andes to remind the world that it still has not raised its consciousness nor its mind. It is time to leave the atavistic. It is time to give up what is superfluous and petty.

I shall leave My Keys of Gold in the simple hearts, in those who can hold within them My Legacy, that does not come from this world but from the Universe.

For this Plan to go forward, for the Work to continue, you must, companions, reposition your places, knowing that all that you have received in these last years, will not be wasted by humanity as it was a part of My Passion, even if you do not believe it.

With Eyes of Mercy, I come to observe the world. With a compassionate Heart I come to rescue those who suffer and those who cannot give themselves entirely to My Heart.

Know, My dear souls, that there is still much to do. Therefore, I invite you to renew the unity and fraternity among your consciousness. I invite you to respect the Law of the Hierarchy so that the Universe of God can always be near you and in every detail.

Now, be My redeemed stars, coming out the abysses of error and sin, of perversion and evil. Honor your King and Lord as He deserves, in Heaven as on Earth.

Do not separate yourselves anymore. Unite yourselves through My Heart so that I may continue to come to you; to avoid My not coming anymore at this time in which humanity needs the high vibrations of love and peace.

Remove from your hearts and lives what is already old and resistant, what does not give unity and love among creatures and peoples, between races and origins.

I gave My Life to this world and for this humanity so that they would know how to do it, and thus, not fall into temptation.

I come on this day, with a second message, to open your eyes even more and, especially, to open your hearts more to what you need to hear with maturity and calmness.

I would not like to see those responsible for this Work confused, I do not want to find them like this anymore, knowing that each stage we experienced together is essential for your God, for the realization of His Will, for the manifestation of His Work on the different planes of this universe, until it reaches humanity.

If the ties of love among you break, My companions, who will take My Plan forward?

You already know that it is true that I do not find a place or shelter where I can announce My new Word, My new Message sent by God from the Heights of this universe.

I would not want to lose sight of you, because there are souls in this world who also need Me, and I must attend to them, as I attend to your souls at these times.

Through this Marathon, raise your most sincere offering to God so that a Ray of My merciful Heart touches that space in your consciousness that is still dark and resistant to change.

Remember that I can do everything and that My Father has not set any limits for Me.

I come with My Heavenly Government to put all things in order, from the invisible to the visible, from the immaterial to the material, from the spirit to the flesh. All under the universal order.

May the souls of Chile rejoice for this moment, so that it can be repeated during these critical times, in which more of My companions must be awakened to the call of redemption.

Joyful will be those who listen and believe without having seen.

Blessed in Heaven will be those who keep the Treasures of My Heart and vivify them, from time to time.

I bless you in the name of Love and Unity.

Under the Light of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.