

Wednesday, February 22 of 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

I wait for you. I expect you. I love you. I know each one of you beyond your hearts that are still in the process of Redemption.

I contemplate you in perpetual prayer. I watch over you with My Immaculate Heart. I seek you in each path so that each soul may reencounter Christ.

The time has come for the true consecration of some souls, and of constant giving for many others. Time marks the hour of permanent prayer for reparation of the world and of the sleeping humanity.

Today I come to raise My voice over your hearts so that, in addition to you, other children may be able to listen to My divine call. For this reason, dear children, the Lord contemplates all with His mighty Heart of Love, He awaits the conversion of each soul in this time. Such conversion will help the Plans of Peace that My Immaculate Heart proposes to emanate to all souls, even more to those distant from the Love of God.

My children, know that all must surrender themselves to the victorious Love of My Heart so that the world may thus find the rest that it so much seeks. So that humanity may accompany the changes in the world, it must pray always, as an eternal vow. This will allow the constant pain of the world to be reverted. In this way, little hearts, the true consecration of each one of your spirits will be able to unite to the Light of the Holy Spirit that, at the end of times, will work as an emblem of peace for many and as a flame of faith and hope for others.

Dear children, the world is in urgent need of prayer. Therefore, if you live day by day the attributes of My Universal Heart, you will help so that the Divine Law may shelter and rescue many hearts that have separated themselves from God. Souls burn in the flames of pain and suffering. My call announces the relief that many still do not believe they can live; but in the end of all, My Immaculate Heart will triumph in each essence that seeks Me and in those that do not seek Me.

The true spirit of prayer will maintain the boat in the ocean until it is lifted to the Heavens.

I invite you to remain with your hearts in Heaven.

Who venerates you,

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity