Daily Message of Mary, Rose of Peace, transmitted in the District of Miraflores, Lima, Peru to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

Be brave, My dear children, in these times of Armageddon.

My Heart is your emblem of battle; it is the impenetrable shield that no one can overthrow.

So, with courage and valor, be My victorious praying armies who respond to the call of the Celestial Mother; be bearers of the Grace that achieves and redeems all.

Dear children, be brave all the time and do not give up; I am here to intercede for My children and to take you to the Divine Heart of the Redeemer.

Dear children, follow My paths, because on them is written the story of your liberation and forgiveness; on My paths is written the story of all your conversion.

Triumphant in prayer and merciful in love go forth, My dear children, because there is still much to do for all this humanity.

My children, I am your Commander and Guide; I am the triumphant Mother in Heart and in Soul, in Spirit and in Divinity, through all My praying soldier children.

Dear children, it is the time to make the Plan of God triumph, and the Work will be done with the collaboration of everyone.

Be My witnesses, be finally My beloved children.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who loves you and protects you always,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
