DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

For this Nativity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, may all families unite for a moment to My Infinite Mercy and, during the hours of Christmas Eve, may they keep in mind the needs of those who are most unprotected.

While you are together, as a family in your homes, remember the lack of spiritual and material food that so many experience; while you are seated at the table, remember and pray, above all, for those who will not receive love nor compassion, from anyone.

During this Nativity, I sincerely wish, from the depths of My Sacred Heart, that all of you can enter into the Spirit of Solidarity and Peace. It will be necessary that families, gathered in Christ, to reflect throughout these days about the deep love that can encompass the hearts of the whole world.

I invite you, in truth, to celebrate with Me the Nativity supper, with your prayers and pleas to the Celestial Father. For this, may the coming days of Christmas be considered as sacred celebrations, so that they can provide to all an appreciation for the reverential and the sacred, through the Birth of Jesus.

Unite to the Christic Spirit and allow the Grace of God to act through your hearts because, in this way, the world will be relieved of all evil.

Under the Light of God, be blessed.

Thank you for letting yourselves be guided by the Great Star of Bethlehem!

Christ Jesus
