

Tuesday, January 28 of 2020

Private Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Today I come to this, one of My Houses, to commune with My companions, just as My companions commune daily with Me, not only in the Sacrament of Reconciliation that is the Eucharist, but also commune through My Love, in My inner Presence in you and among you, beyond tests, purifications, deserts or uncertainty.

I come here, on this special day, to renew you, because you have lived Me, because you have felt Me, because you have received Me into your hearts many times.

But now it is time to serve the planet and humanity.

This Work is for humanity and the planet, for the relief of suffering, for the rescue of those who are lost, for those who have lost faith, for those who do not find any meaning nor reason for living at this moment, the Work is for all of them.

My Work will be through you, through what you have conquered and done until now as a service Community and as brothers and sisters on the path.

You have taken steps in which My Heart has rejoiced; thus I have returned so you know I am with you until the end of days.

And although My time is ending in humanity, My Heart will not cease to beat within you, as long as you allow this.

I Am that Light that illumines your paths. I Am the only Truth. I Am the only Path. I Am Life, in you and for you, as well as for your brothers and sisters of humanity.

My Heart suffers because of all It sees in this world. My Countenance can no longer smile as much as other times, but My Spirit is eased, calmed and becomes serene when It sees that Its companions are responsive, beyond the times or tests.

My Spirit rejoices when you get up from the ground after so many falls; in this way, I can renew you in your inner worlds, on your paths, in your existence.

The most bitter time has not yet come for humanity, but it is close.

You must be My Light in the world, My Love in humanity, My service in daily life, so that all this may be radiated to all beings that need, in this time, to find the Truth they have not found for some time, and who have lost the meaning of their life on Earth.

In spite of the serious things the world is experiencing and how little awareness you may have of what this means, the Hierarchy is here, because you are in the Hierarchy and you can never forget or lose this. When you feel you are not in the Hierarchy, return on the path so as to be able to find it, be able to feel it and experience it as you have done so many times.

On this night, I come not only to celebrate the moment of reparation and the healing of humanity, but I come also to prepare you for what is to come, and which is not far away.

For this next Sacred Week, the Father again chose this place, His mother house, because the Sacred Tree of Figueira has sprouted again, to sprout again many times through your efforts and surrender.

Let this sacrifice of love be an absolute surrender to the Eternal Father, so the Fount of His Mercy and Pity may be present in this place, as in the rest of the Communities which have been consecrated to the Hierarchy so Supreme Will may be accomplished.

I need you to understand that your purifications and tests, your despair or anguish, balance the great debt which humanity has in these times.

God does not want you to suffer, but rather that you be glad, that you be glad for being in His Presence, to be in communion with Him every day; and for being able, in these difficult times, to renew your faith that allows you to experience the alliance with My Spirit and My Consciousness.

I come looking, companions, at this time, for a refuge in your hearts so you may console Me. I hope to be in you for a longer time, so that we may experience a divine brotherhood in greater depth.

I know your hearts and I know your destinies. But what I need at this moment is your union with Me so peace may blossom in these times of tribulation. The peace you must live and profess every day in My Name.

With these Words, I come to prepare you for what will happen in the next Sacred Week. You must not only open your arms to receive those who come, but also open your inner worlds to release evil from the planet together with your Master and Lord.

But I will not cease to give you My strength, My trust and My Love, which will be the pillars that in these times will support you in what will come.

I come here as a pilgrim, and this pilgrim has been well received with the response and the adherence of his friends.

I have been well received many times, when I have come through the door of this house so as to be able to come and find God in the prayer, in the Sacraments, in the silence on the Hill.

Know, companions, that God is on the heights of that Hill, as one of His Sacred Aspects; and that He is there to welcome you and receive you all the time, when you need it or when you do not need it. In this way, you will be united with the universe, infinity, and existence, and you will be able to be renewed as many times as necessary.

It is the time to gratefully recognize all you have received, throughout the times and the years. Now is the moment to live that succession which your Master and Instructor gave you when He was with you on this physical plane, and is now with you on the spiritual plane, in the great Divine Consciousness.

He sends you His gesture of love and of fatherliness, His blessing as Priest of the Cosmos, and above all, He sends you His gratitude for your persistence and your faith in the invisible and non-material.

Today, within this Hill and this Community, in the depths of your consciousness, I come to place the spiritual heart of the one who instructed you for more than thirty years, so you may learn to infinitely submerge in the giving of self and the surrender of the being as he has unconditionally done for all of you.

All can reach the same aspiration he had. All can merge with the Divine Consciousness. Let the breath of Spirit overrun you, on this night, in which we testify to the realization of the Will of God in this place. And beyond the tests, let your hearts be glad and smile because the time of liberation has come, as it came to the people of Israel.

At the request of the Father and before beginning this special consecration with My companions, in the name of that Grace received from on High, which built and manifested Figueira through the petition of the One, the eternal God of Heaven and of Earth, the universe and life, you will intone Breath of Spirit.

I am listening to you, and at this moment, let each make their inner offering in My Presence.

Who feels it so, can stand.