APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS AT THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE SACRED CALL

The world needs to find Love to definitely step out of suffering.

This is all I hope to see: hearts that love, hearts that live, out of love, that which I live for you, although I am in the Heavens.

Today I come to meet you to remind you of this first rule because the hearts that are desperate, yielding and giving in to the suffering and pain of the world lose hope, day by day.

But do not forget that, above all, there is My Love, a Love that strengthens you for the trials, a Love that leads you to emptiness, a favorite meeting with the Creator.

You, beings of the surface of the Earth, come from a Fountain of Love, but also from a Fountain of Wisdom. Do not allow Love to be erased in your hearts, do not allow the flame of Love to cease to burn within you because that is where My Heart is, which was pierced so that you, at this time, might find the true Fountain of Love.

It is this Love of My Heart that summons you to love and to serve, the Love that will rebuild the families of the world.

It is the Love that I call you to experience that in this cycle will allow relief, given to those who suffer and to those who emigrate from their nations.

Today, upon the palms of My Hands, I bring you the Sacred Heart of Love as a burning and divine flame that comes to offer itself for the world in order to be able to heal it and convert it.

You know that I will never ask you for anything that you cannot give Me. I will ask you for what is most simple, but most true, I will ask that which someday will make you absolutely understand the Plan of God.

Today, at My Feet, I contemplate and observe the great needs of the world, the supplications of hearts for themselves and their families, for their nations and for their peoples, for needs that I try to meet, one by one.

But, My companions, will you decide to be the bridge to My Sacred Heart? These bridges can extend throughout the world by means of the love and the tireless service that you can render to My Sacred Heart.

In this blessed month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, I come to remind you of this, because the majority is easily forgetting it.

We know that the world is not prepared to face what it is facing today. But since the most ancient times, while I was on Earth, I taught you the first rule of Love, because it is the essence, but also the basis of your entire spiritual and human life.

How will you understand those who suffer, if you do not love?

How will you endure evil, if you do not love?

How will you expand your consciousness, if you do not love?

I come to teach you to first Love, in what is most simple, in what is most deep, but in what is most true, in what no one can see nor perceive.

It is in this Love that I need you to work today. In the Love that surrenders without conditions, in the Love that surrenders without aspirations, in the silent Love that is not perceived, in the Love that always says 'yes'.

By means of My Message, I pour out upon you the Rays of My Mercy and I illuminate the entire Earth so that the forces that bind it, condemn it and disturb it may be dissolved by My Light.

Receive that Grace of My Heart, the Light of the Rays of My Mercy so that humanity may be healed and redeemed, so that peace and the end of wars may be attained, as well as the end of all humanitarian conflicts.

Take this Light to your heart and commune with My Sacred Heart so that My great Promise before the Father may be fulfilled, the Promise that this Earth may be repopulated by New Christs, those who will go until the end saying 'yes'.

May your hearts and minds be emptied at this moment so that the great mystery of the Love of God may be revealed to the simple and humble hearts, to those who have divested their lives of the temptations of this world and of all distraction.

Today, My wish is that you contemplate My resurrected Heart, the Eucharistic Heart of the Son of God, which, as a Tabernacle, opens its doors to the world so that everyone can contemplate the Truth, the Truth that is beyond all evil and all adversity, the Truth that will lead you to peace and to the perpetual union with My Eucharistic Heart.

FrIar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

At this moment, Our Lord is showing, in a clear and crystalline way, His Sacred Heart with three flames of fire that represent Love, Compassion and Light; He is showing that, through a gesture of paternal Love, He offers His Heart to the world so that the souls that are the thirstiest for the consoling Love of Jesus may be reconsecrated before His merciful Presence. In the silence of His Words, He offers this Heart of His.

And now, He placed His Heart back into His Chest, but His Heart is still exposed.

For those who have doubts, I will return.

For those who have lost faith, I will return.

For those who no longer believe in Me, for them, I will return.

For those who live in suffering, I will return.

For those who have died unjustly, I will return, I will resurrect all of them in spirit, mind and body so that they may be with Me in My Kingdom, fulfilling the promise of a New Humanity, free from the chains of oppression, from sadness and anguish: a humanity that will be renewed by the Sacred Spirit of the Supreme Will of God.

Upon the Altar of My Celestial Church, I have hundreds of Chalices to be given to the souls that offer themselves to drink of the Divine Blood of sacrifice so that, by means of surrender and renunciation, they may repair the Heart of the Son of God of the serious outrages that He receives daily, for all situations that the world today lives.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Our Lord is showing us His Altar in the Celestial Church, with one hundred and thirty-three Chalices that hold His precious Blood, the Blood of Transubstantiation. He offers these Chalices to us so that, spiritually, they may be drunk by our souls, for those who offer in consciousness and with discernment to assume what He offers to us today, as spiritual and human service.

For this, the angels that surround the Sacred Heart of Jesus, at this moment, hold the Chalices of the Altar to take them to the souls that have accepted them, throughout the four corners of the Earth.

Those who have offered to assume a special sacrifice, let them drink of this Chalice that the angels offer to us today.

My noble Heart wants to transform you into something new, into something that you do not know, into something in which you cannot have control of nor the minimum power to change.

Therefore, after this Sacrament of the Sacred Chalice, which some of you have offered to drink without knowing what this means or what this represents for their lives, I ask you, companions, "Have you decided to come to live in My Heart and accompany Me in this planetary task, in this silent and imperceptible rescue of all of humanity, whether in the plains or in the valleys, in the deserts or in the oceans, in any place of the world?"

Are your hearts ready?

Have you meditated upon what I told you in the last Sacred Week?

My Words must not only remain recorded. My Words must be lived by each one of you because when you live My Message, you will understand the reason for being here and the reason for living for Me.

This is all I want to tell you, because I need that you someday understand the mystery of My Love and the reason for My coming to meet you, to instruct you but also to give you an impulse, because the one who is in Me will not perish, although they go through their hardest and most difficult trial.

To the souls who have not yet decided, I invite them to live in My Heart, to enter the school of My eternal Love.

Before I leave you with the solemnity of the Sacred Eucharist, which will once again beat through the heart of Aurora, where this celebration will be offered to all, I want to bid farewell, listening to a song that helps in your re-consecration to My Sacred Heart.

You will offer the prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus today with a solemn song so that the alliance of souls with Me may be deeper and everything may be renewed.

At the end of the sacred eucharistic celebration, you will make a synthesis of this work of the impulses of My merciful Heart, by means of a second song that will close the exercise of this whole Message that, out of love, I have brought to you today.

Therefore, you will sing, at the end of this transmission, "Pierced Heart".

I will listen to the song to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and I bless you so that you may rise from where you have fallen, so that you may ever find peace.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
