

Friday, November 10 of 2017

WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

At the beginning of Creation, when God thought of humanity, He saw everything that those creatures of His would experience during their evolution, and even so, He said "yes" to His Archangels, giving them permission to have the human project and the material dimensions emerge from the Creative Ponds of the Universe.

When Jesus was in the Garden of Gethsemane, at the apex of His agony, the Creator had Him know the mysteries of humanity, and the same vision that the Father had, in the beginning, was granted to the Son, and He also said "yes" and placed the cross on His back, which renewed the existence of humanity and granted it the Grace and Mercy to continue evolving.

In the Universe, the Blessed and the Saints, who untiringly pray for humanity, were granted a part of the vision experienced by the Father and by the Son, so that they could more deeply know humanity and be renewed in the face of this Plan, and they also said "yes" to God and renewed their commitments to human existence.

Today, children, it is not necessary that you have visions about the destiny of humanity because the present reveals what before was only manifested to the inner eyes of God. Nothing is now hidden on Earth, and those who know how to step out of themselves can perceive the times in which they live and the destiny they will reach if humanity does not awake.

The Love of God caused Love to be born in the Heart of the Son. The "yes" of God was the harbinger of the "yes" of the Redeemer; and it was because of the example of the Father and of the Son that in all of the Universe there were those who also said "yes" to this Plan of Redemption.

Now, inspired by the Hope of the Father, by the Surrender of the Son, and by the Renunciation of the Saints, who dwell in Eternity, it is time for humanity to give itself an opportunity and say "yes" to God.

To say "yes" to God means to open oneself to His Will, to the union with His Heart, to row against the currents of chaos and evil that drag down the human consciousness at this time, so that by means of a life of prayer, of works that manifest Peace, and a consciousness willing to be expanded to the Infinity, the doors of a new and last cycle of Redemption may be opened.

In this way, I tell you, children, that this is how you will prepare for the Return of Christ, and as an army that fights with its knees on the ground, you will wait for Him to arrive so that, together with Him, you make Love triumph in this world.

You will see chaos, illusion, and ignorance show their faces, just as Christ saw flagellation, crowning with thorns, and the cross on the top of Calvary. But just as He taught you, persevere, and allow that the greater the lovelessness that arises before your eyes, the greater the Love that emerges from your hearts to balance it.

Be like a lamp in these times of darkness and point out the path of where to go in order to see the Sun that will rise again.

Christ saw the cross, death, and solitude, but He also saw Eternal Life and the Love that surpassed the Love in the Heart of His Father. It is time to grow and embrace the cross of these times because you were called for this.

May today's tests strengthen and encourage you to love each day with greater intensity. Let Love, Grace, and the Power of God be born in your hearts.

Your Father and Companion,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph