WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED AT MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRASIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

How important is the transformation of the human consciousness to you, child?

How important is the suffering of the Kingdoms of Nature to you?

How important is the suffering of those who live in war to you?

How important is the innocence and purity taken away from violated children to you?

How important is the gift of life to you?

Have you thought during some point of your day that this could be your last day on Earth?

Make each second worthwhile, mending your mistakes, correcting your path, healing what causes you regret, reviewing your inner world.

How many times have you thought about those who have nothing, or about the families that have been split, permeated by hatred and resentment? Will your family be one of them?

Begin each day, child, as if it were the last day. Live fully, filled with love.

Make your days worthy of the Sacrifice that God has made for you. Make your life become a life of reparation and merits for lost souls.

Crying out for Mercy has an incalculable power. To be Mercy has an unfathomable power for the human consciousness.

Prayer opens the doors that allows God to touch the Earth. Actions unites dimensions so that God may be on Earth, through His Children.

Thus, child, allow that, in times of chaos, dissociation and confusion, your being may not only be a passing instrument through which God can touch the world and His Creation for only a moment.

May you be a constant instrument in the Hands of God, and through the actions of your heart, as if it was the last day, you will perceive how many keys you can turn, how many thresholds you can cross, how many mysteries you can unveil if you just unite your will, aspiration, intention and love to the Divine Consciousness.

Thus, ask yourself sincerely: if today was my last day, what would I do with it? How would I drink the last drop of life, in the biggest school of love of the Universe?

Live with fullness, spiritual fullness, divine fullness.

You have My Blessing for this.

Your father and friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph.
