WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED AT MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRASIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Cultivate a pure heart, empty of ambition and desire, so that you may understand the heavenly mysteries and so that your souls may be more inclined to that which comes from God rather than that which comes from the world.

Cultivate a pure heart, empty of ambition and desire, so that when your eyes behold the greatness of the Lord at His entry into Jerusalem, you will not dwell on the majesty of human praise, but on the profound depths of the Presence of Christ.

Cultivate a pure heart, empty of ambition and desire, so that when your ears hear the echo of the Voice of the Lord in the Temple, your heart will not dwell on the exaltation that this Voice causes in humanity, but on the power of the Words of Christ, which transform your inner world.

Cultivate a pure heart, empty of ambition and desire, so that you are able to perceive that the entrance of your Lord into Jerusalem does not come to exalt the world nor humans, but comes to heal hearts so that they are before the material, etheric and spiritual memory of Christ and that this experience may place them before a new opportunity to contemplate the passage of the Messiah upon Earth, not with the eyes of ambition, the eyes of a people who, being impoverished in body and spirit, mistreated by the laws of their time, were looking for a king with such power capable of rising above all the powers of the world. And not finding the power they sought, they mistreated, with fierce contempt and with the force of their inner hells, the One who was sent to save the world from their ambition.

Therefore, cultivate a pure heart, empty of ambitions and desires so that the Love of Christ may have a different power within you today.

May your consciousnesses be spiritually mature, willing to renounce the conditioned understandings and thoughts of the world, open to the Spirit of God, so that you may echo, blossom and bear the fruit of the seeds of a Christic life that in earlier times could not find fertile enough soil to transform the human condition into a divine one.

You have My blessing for this.

Your father and friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
